BOCK HIGH SCHOOL
TEXAS

MAPPING OUT the life of an LHS Student in his city, the editors and staff members bring to you the 1956 edition of the WESTERNER. We have tried to express the importance and influence of this city on the student's life with emphasis on the three greatest heritages: the church, the home, and the school. In the city of Lubbock, the student can also take advantage of all other opportunities offered him. He works and trades in the city's business establishments; he finds entertainment in the various recreational centers; and he learns to accept his responsibilities in the friendly atmosphere of the Hub of the Plains

We, the editors, would like to thank all staff workers, photographers, art staff members, and our sponsors, who have put much time and energy into this book. We would also like to thank The Steck Company of Austin, our publishers, Reeves Studio, the Avalanche-Journal, and Mr. Paul Branom, for pictures.

DEDICATED

*To the seniors of the Class of 1956, leaders of Tom S. Lubbock
Senior High School, who have upheld the traditions of true Westerners.*

Changes Made In

Symbols around the front door of Tom S. Lubbock Senior High School are symbolic of academic and extracurricular activities offered in Lubbock High School. The symbols represent home economics, science, English, sports, social studies, music, and dramatics.

A typical scene of students waiting in line in the cafeteria during the lunch periods is shown in the lower left picture. This year the lunch periods were five minutes longer than in the past year, and there were only two lunch periods instead of three.

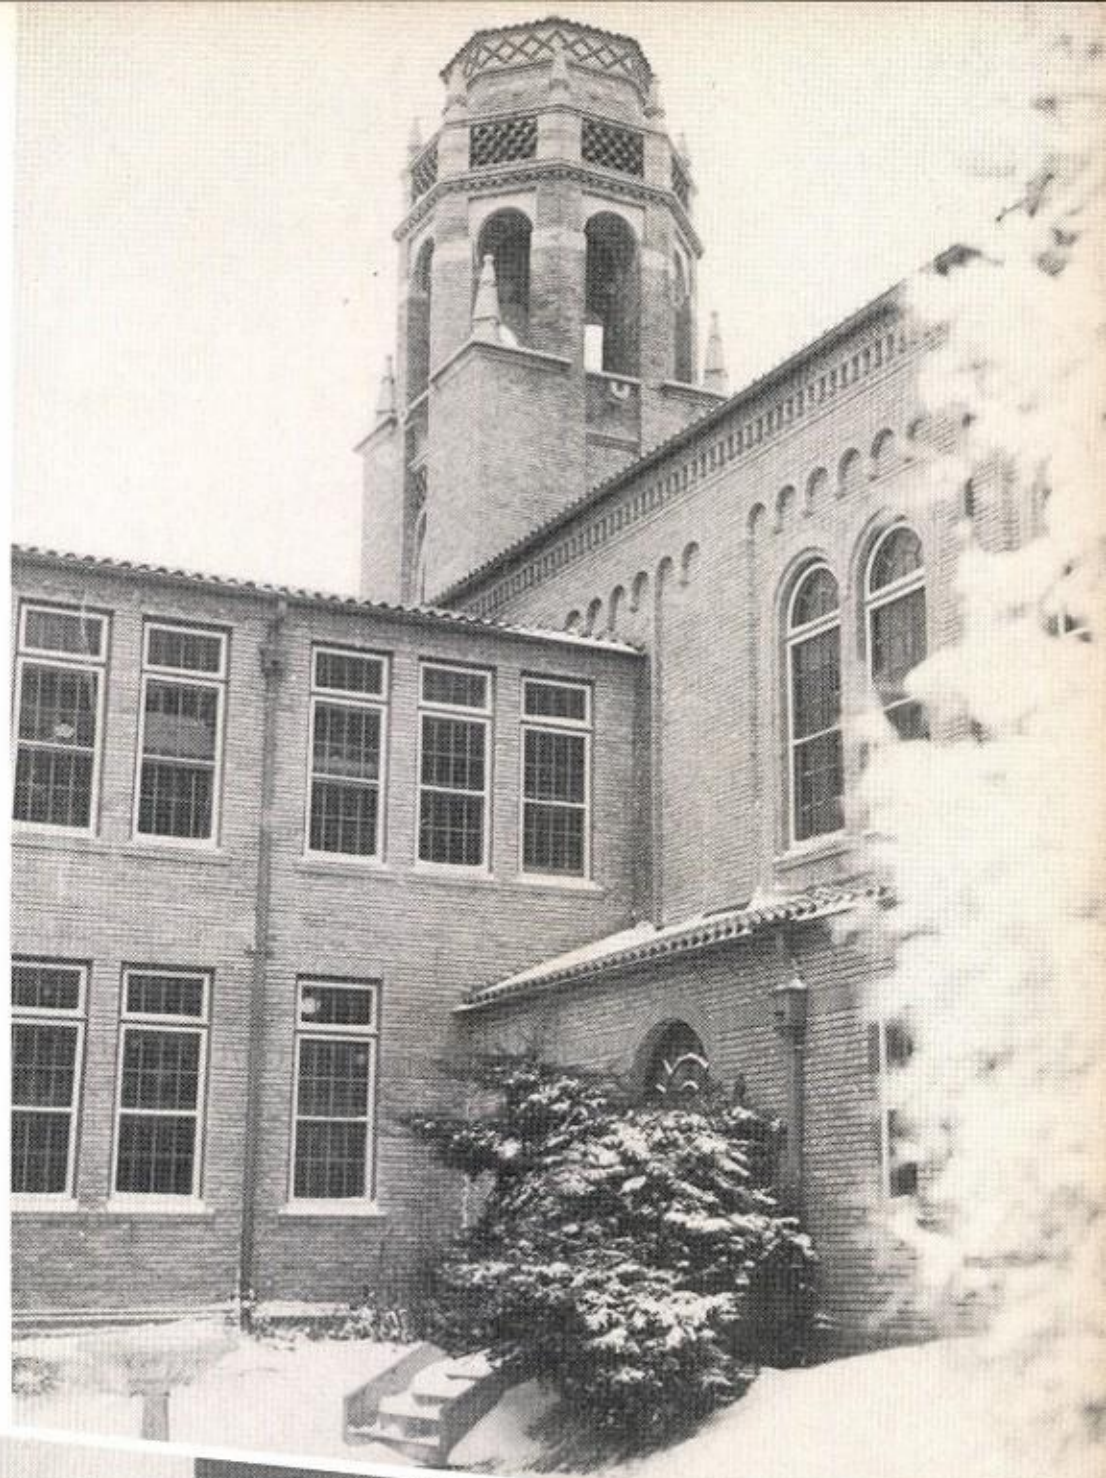

Cafeteria, Library

The trophy case, in the center picture, contains trophies from many sports and outstanding victories. The case, presented to LHS by the Class of 1951, stands in the hall behind the auditorium.

During the 15-inch snowfall in February, the snow-covered trees and shrubbery in the enclosed patio presented a beautiful sight. Students also enjoyed a one day holiday caused by the snow.

In the lower right picture, students are seen in the new section of the library. Partitions between the library and the room formerly used for a girls' studyhall were removed, and the entire space is now used for library facilities.

Lubbock Administrators

Direct Work of 31 Schools

Better educational facilities have been provided this year by the provision of two high schools. Lubbock High School had approximately 1300 students with three grades, while Monterey had an enrollment of approximately 1190 with four grades, ninth through the twelfth. The school board was concerned with the expansion of the entire school system, which is now composed of thirty-one school buildings.

Active, well describes the man who has served as Superintendent of Lubbock Public Schools since 1951. Mr. Nat Williams has led the Lubbock Public Schools efficiently through their period of growth; and during the time he has been here, he has seen the building of six elementary schools, one junior high, and the completion of the new Monterey High School.

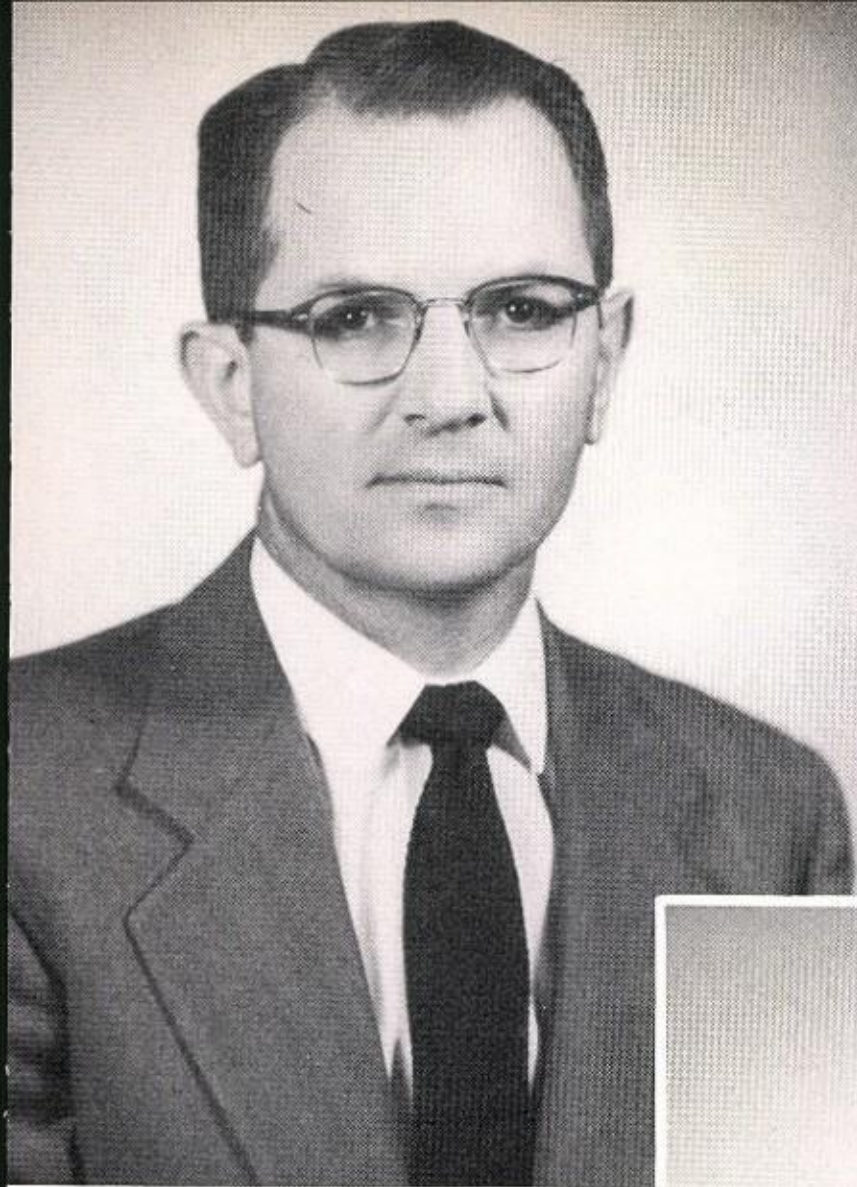

Work of the highest quality and continued progress describes the work of Dr. Ishmael Hill, supervisor of the entire curriculum and the instructional program.

He is responsible for interviewing all candidates for teaching jobs, and each spring Dr. Hill visits colleges in search of new teachers.

Mr. William H. Evans, President of the Board of Education, presides over the group which directs the entire school program.

Other board members are Dr. M. M. Ewing, vice-president; Mr. T. B. Murphey, secretary; Mr. Don L. Jones; Mr. Ruel Martin; Mr. David Pugh; and Mr. Russell Wilkinson.

Gordon, Reed Guide 1300 LHS Students

Taking over the many duties of principal at Tom S. Lubbock High School has made Mr. Jay E. Gordon one of the busiest men in the school. The complete supervision of the school is his responsibility.

Mr. Gordon's duties include directing teachers and students, overseeing all extracurricular activities, and being responsible for carrying out plans made by the school board.

Assuming the important duties of assistant principal at Lubbock High School is Mr. E. W. (Tebo) Reed.

Mr. Reed's busy days are filled with keeping attendance records, noting the enrolling and dropping of students, directing all student activities, and looking after the student activity funds.

Miss Dorothy Lomax, director of secondary curriculum in the Lubbock Public Schools, has played an important part in the growth and development of the Lubbock schools.

Miss Lomax has worked diligently with secondary teachers to enrich the curriculum offerings and improve the techniques used in the schools.

MRS. ETHEL K. TERRELL
Girls' counselor

Under the direction of Dr. Ishmael Hill, assistant superintendent of Lubbock Public Schools, it is the job of the directors and co-ordinators to plan improvements within their individual subject areas, aid in revisions of courses of study, and serve as leaders in their branch of the curriculum program. These people also help in the selection of textbooks which are under consideration for adoption.

MR. VERNON L. ODOM
Boys' counselor

Keeping the library in top shape and binding books are only two of the varied duties of the library personnel.

Seen arranging library books are Mrs. Ivey G. Warren, Mrs. Willie Clark, and Mrs. R. T. Groves. They are seen each day working in the school library. Mrs. Warren is the library assistant; Mrs. Clark is in charge of book binding; and Mrs. Groves is head librarian.

The efficient operation of the offices of Lubbock High School this past year, has been due to the hard work and the efficiency of the office clerks and secretary of the principal.

Shown in the picture are Mrs. Alfred T. McWhorter, Mrs. Robert E. Knight, secretary to the principal, Miss Eldora Whitlock, and Mrs. Haskell Taylor, who are enjoying the annual home economics tea at Christmas.

A fundamental comprehension of mathematics is essential in every phase of business life. It is the basis of science, and all phases of engineering, physics, and chemistry require that a person be equipped mathematically. The power to think logically, quickly, and clearly, so essential to all professions, is developed by mathematics.

Training students for America's industries is the purpose of the Industrial Arts Department of Tom S. Lubbock Senior High School. The teachers in the Industrial Arts Department are Miss Mary Wilson and Miss George Ann McFarland, commercial art; Mr. E. E. Key, woodwork; and Mr. E. J. Wallace, mechanical drawing.

One of the many history courses offered in Lubbock Senior High School is Bible. It is taken from both the Old and New Testament. Other courses offered are American History, Texas History, World History, and American Government Problems.

Billy Spitzer, Glenn Lawson, Rose Nell Haney, and Sybil Marion are shown discussing a map in Mrs. Virginia McLean's Bible class.

Clerical Practice is among the many business training courses that are offered in Tom S. Lubbock. This is a course that teaches students to operate various business machines, to use filing systems, and to increase their typing skill. Showing Rose Ann Blackwood and Gail Clark the operations of the adding machine is Miss Marietta Montgomery's seventh period Clerical Practice class.

Science plays an important part in the lives of people today. The defense of our nation is based on the scientists we have. Science courses offered in Lubbock High are biology, chemistry, physics, and aeronautics and applied science. Shown in the picture are Ed Watson and Stanley Silverman preparing a chemistry experiment in Mrs. Jewell L. Gilliam's third period chemistry class.

Auto Mechanics has attracted boys who are interested in cars and are interested in becoming mechanics.

The boys have class for three hours each day. For one hour the boys have related theory. Then for two hours shop instruction is given.

While checking parts on a car, Lyndol Hall is watched by Robert Sumner and Mr. James Burnett, vocational automotive teacher.

One of the more popular ways of giving book reports in English classes includes making book covers on the books that the students have read. A review is written inside and the outside covers depict something about the book's subject matter.

Shown looking at some of the covers made in Mrs. B. R. Brunson's classes are Becky Allen, Barbara Vandiver, and Shirley Pinkard, sophomores.

In taking Spanish, not only do students learn to speak the language of our Latin American friends, but they learn of their ways and customs. This helps to make a friendlier relationship between Latin American countries and the United States.

Projects are made and entered in project showings during fiestas. Some of the projects include such things as Spanish houses, maps, and costumes.

Shannon Golding, John Payne, Dale Hodges, and Flora Millis are shown working on the project they will enter in the showing.

Latin, a language from which many others are derived, is used as a basis for many different professions today. Fifty-three students are taking Latin this year. First and second year courses are offered in Tom S. Lubbock.

Jimmie Lou Wilson and Karen Wood are seen looking at the display of projects which have been made by the Latin students through the years. During Latin Week, March 11-17, the Latin students make their own projects which show life in early Rome.

Teachers have their troubles these days. Especially if they happen to have any of these eight sets of twins in their class.

The confusing couples pictured standing across from each other are Velma and Vera Moize, Johnny and Jimmy Oldham, Mike and Pat Hendon, Jerry and Terry Church, Leon and LeRoy McGowen, Cloyce and Joyce Smith, and Ray and Jay Wood.

Both Jimmy and Johnny Oldham have Mrs. W. F. McGhee for English; Johnny, first period and Jimmy, fourth. Once a substitute teacher asked Jimmy why he had the same subject two periods. His reply was, "Oh, I like Mrs. McGhee so much I'm in her class two periods."

Senior Officers Guide Class

On the preceding page Kenny Cummings, president of the senior class, and Mary Sue Wilson, secretary, are pictured in their graduation robes as they depart from the halls of LHS for the last time. Under their leadership, the vice presidents directed the activities for approximately three hundred forty seniors for the year.

Included in the projects were the Senior Carnival, assembly, the senior gift selection, class banquet, kid day, and senior day. The vice presidents are, front row, Kenneth Blackford, Sandra Hendrix, Wanda Jo Boyce, and Gordon Deering. On the back row are David Webb, Ann Welch, Mary V. Dawson, and Dewey Bryant.

The Teachers' Dunk provided added interest this year at the Senior Carnival.
Students threw baseballs, attempting to hit a lever which would knock Principal Gordon, Mr. Knight, Mr. Odom, and others into a tub of water. Mr. Gordon is pictured seconds after some student's throw connected.

Preparing for the girls' chorus line in the Senior Carnival are Nancy Crawford, Anne Cole, and Patsy Painter, who are pictured as they sprinkle black derbies with pink glitter. Eleven girls high-kicked to "Thirteen Women" followed by a chorus line of football players dancing to "How to Be Very, Very Popular." The carnival netted $557.50 for the senior gift.

On March 2 the juniors staged the much-anticipated Junior-Senior Prom. The theme of the prom was "Heavenly Eve." Angelic dolls and blue crepe paper decorated the Hillcrest Country Club.

Sophisticated Seniors Are 'Kids for a Day'

On April 3 the seniors celebrated Kid Day, an annual spring event. The 1956 graduates dressed in organdy pinafores, short pants, ruffles, and ribbons. Lollipops and water guns invaded the hall-ways. An assembly, a revised Macbeth, was presented to the seniors. After school, games such as Red Rover and Drop the Hanky were played. Two "kids" were selected from each first period class to run for best-dressed girl and boy. Jo Marie Boothe and Tommy Staples, at the left, were presented as the winners. The winners of a baby picture contest featuring different categories were presented in the open patio immediately after school.

Future Leaders

Officers Head Junior Activities

The pace-setters of the junior class are Scott Mack, president, and Winn Sue Sherrill, secretary. These two students, pictured on the preceding page, were elected by the junior class to lead them in their school activities. They oversee parties, assemblies, the Junior-Senior Prom, and various other junior activities.

Aiding Scott and Winn Sue in planning activities of the class are the eight vice presidents. They give advice and

Juniors Sell Candy To Finance Prom

Determination prevails as Jack Douglas "crams" for nine weeks' tests. Jack portrays a well-known scene as he settles down with his books and an occasional snack (five dozen cookies and a glass of milk).

Helping to plan the many activities of the junior class takes up much of the class sponsors' time. Shown "signing in" in the attendance office are: Mrs. A. F. Rasor, Miss George Ann McFarland, head sponsor, Mr. James E. Burgess, and Mr. Tommy J. Largent. Other junior sponsors are: Mr. James H. Cobb, Mr. R. C. Gibson, Miss Glenys Honey, Mrs. M. F. Landwer, Mr. Raymond McDaniel, Miss Marietta Montgomery, Mr. Bill Oglesby, Mr. Rogers Orr, Mrs. Jack Paige, Mr. Omar C. Strickland, and Miss Alleen Whiteley.

Black-and-Gold Day is a Westerner tradition observed every year. On that day students wear black and gold clothing. Those forgetting to do so must wear a sign saying, "I Goofed!" In the picture at right Mary Ellen Townsend and Pat Sledge watch as Melbia Price pins one of the signs on Roma Carroll.

Dreaming of how she would look the night of the Junior-Senior Prom is Alice Orr. Junior and senior girls donned their formals and headed to the annual dance with their favorite beaus. The prom, sponsored by the junior class, was held at the Hillcrest Country Club with the Kay Carter Band playing.

Juniors Highlight Year

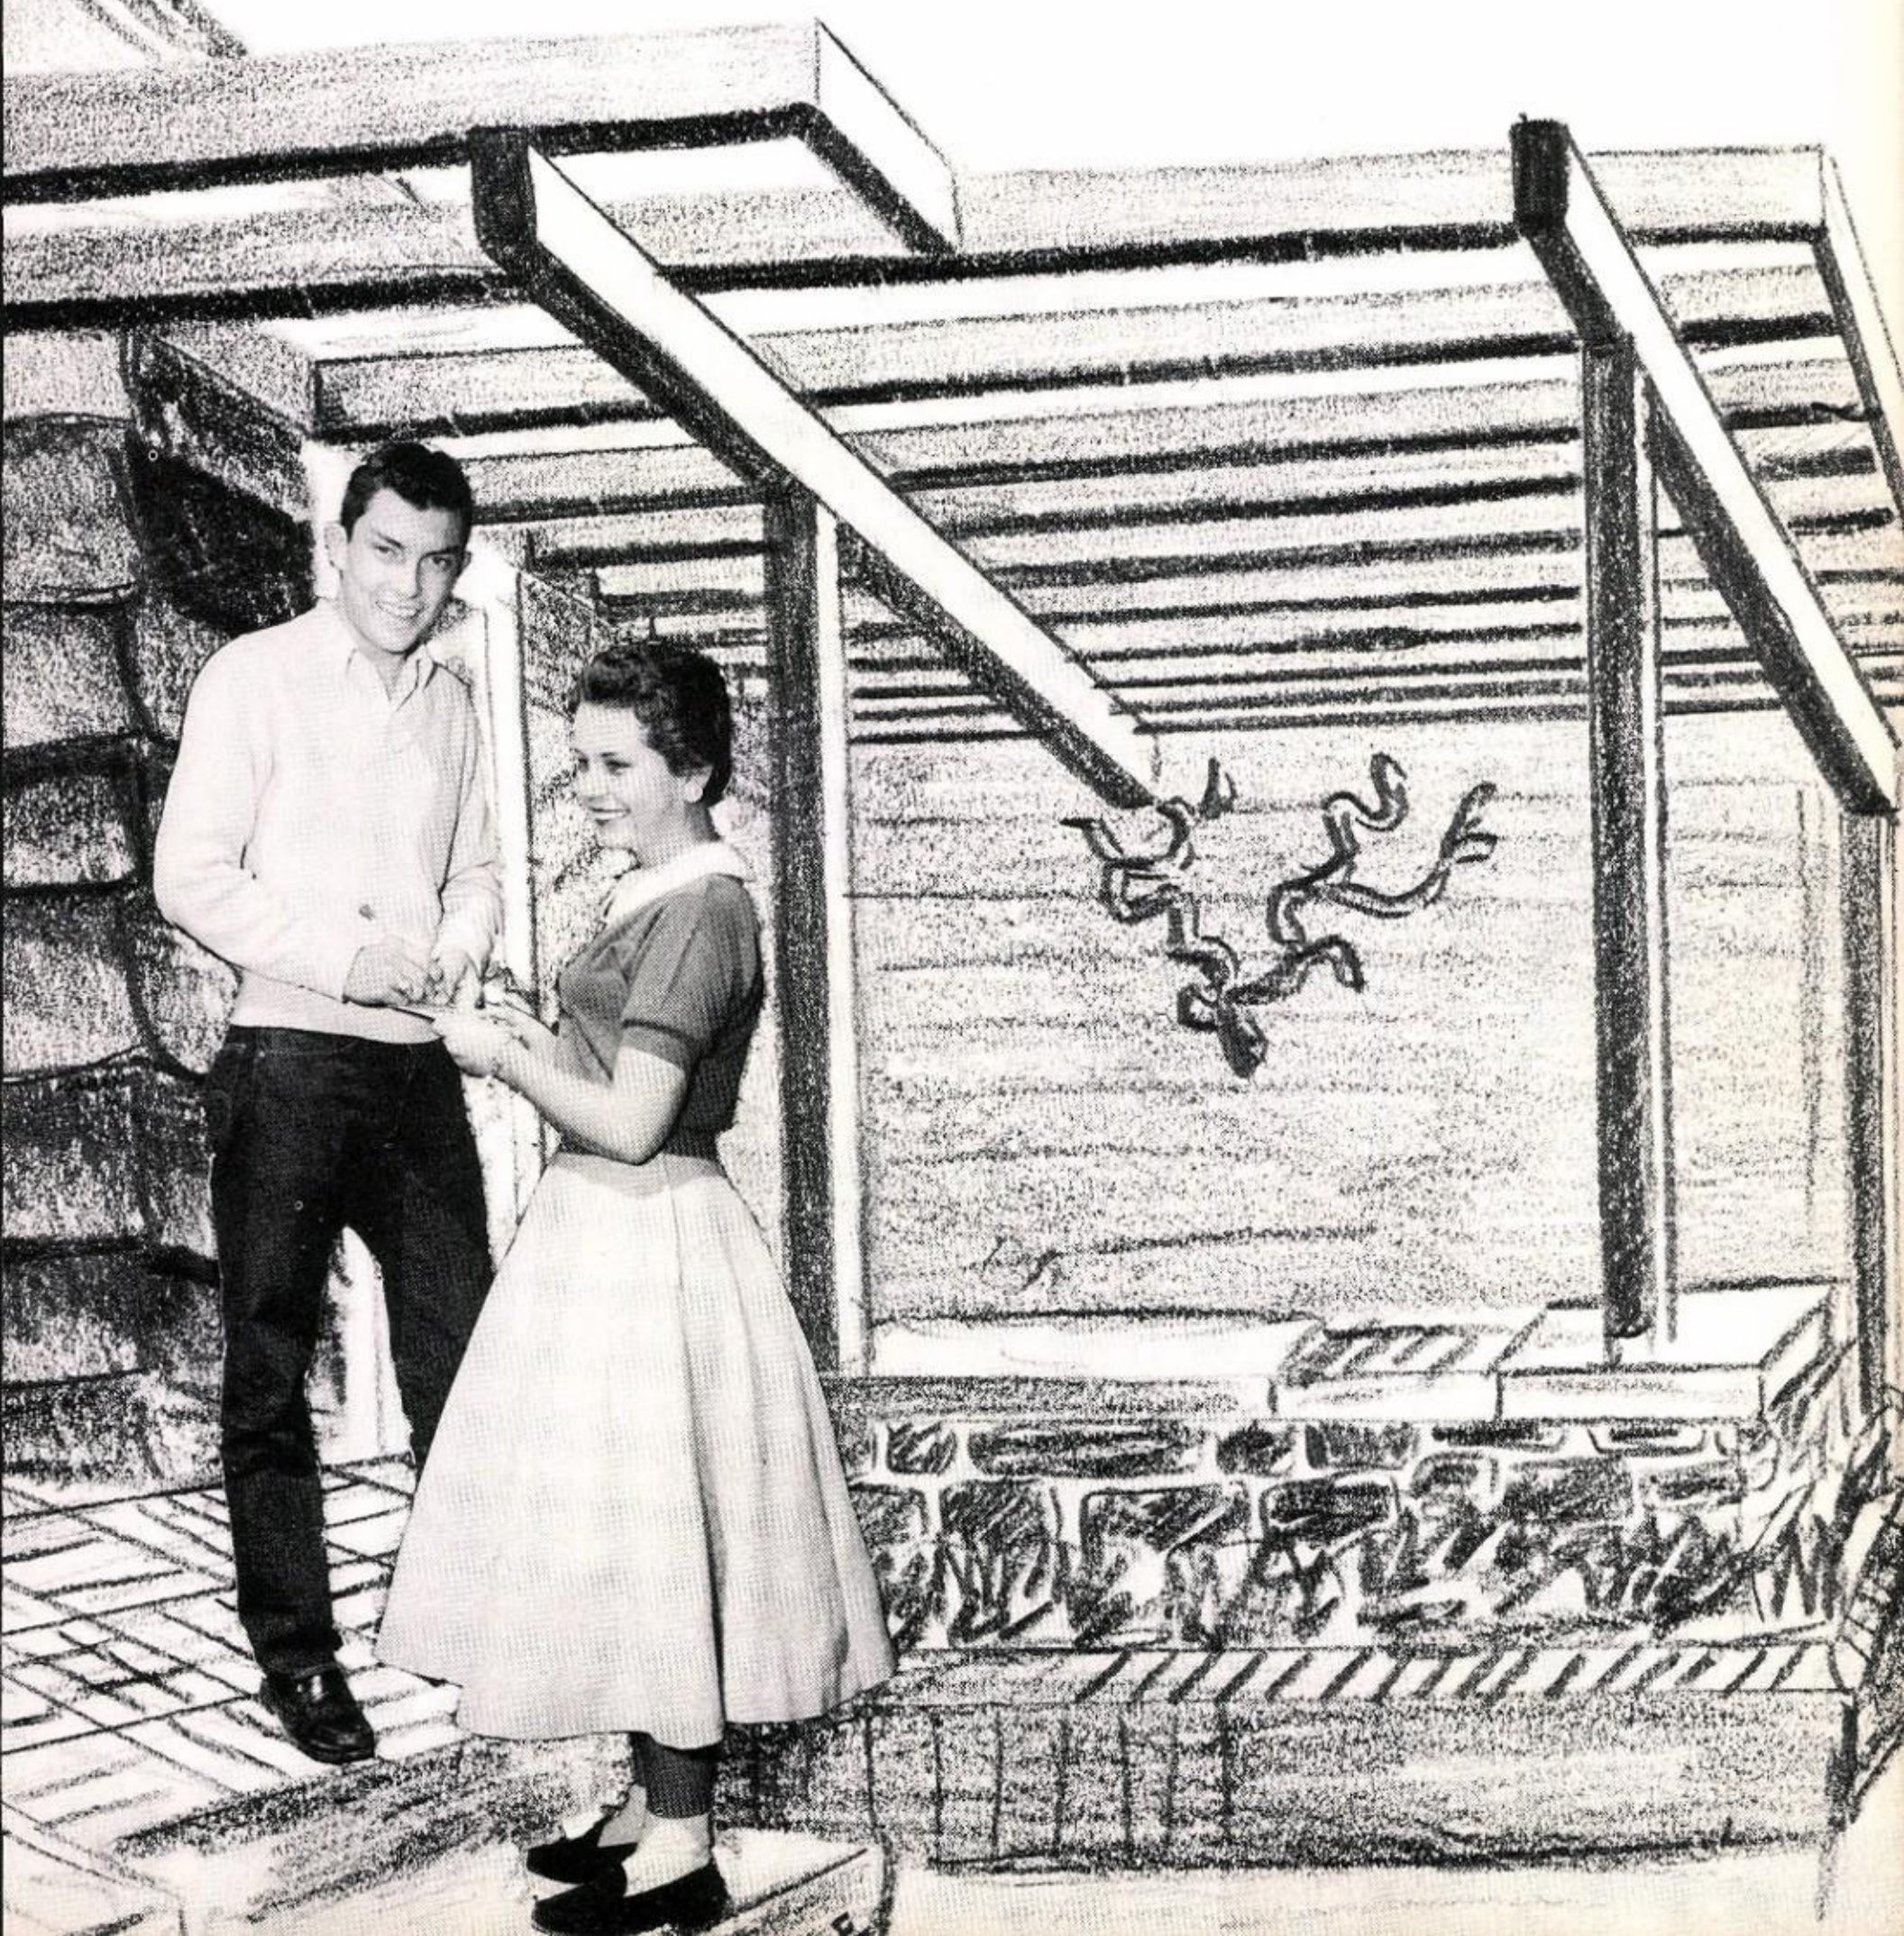

With Prom, Assembly

Greenwich Village, in New York, where artists display pictures along the sidewalk, was the theme of the annual junior assembly. Doyle Gammill narrated and brought pictures to life by sweeping a giant paint brush over a large frame. The talent stepped out of the frame.

To start the show rolling, a dance routine of girls dressed as Westerners spelled out "CLASS OF '57." The girls are Barbara Miller, Gay Terry, Beth Franks, JoAnn Shipman, Jane Adamson, and La Rue Mauldin. Mike Robinson, portraying a typical Westerner, led a horse out with "PRESENTS" written on it. Leaving his horse, he turned to visit Greenwich Village.

Rising Generation

Officers Lead 500 Sophomores

Pictured on the preceding page are Walter Taylor and Carol Wheeler, president and secretary of the approximately five hundred sophomores of 1955-56.

Also serving as leaders are the ten vice presidents. In the sophomore class, one representative is elected for every fifty students, and each serves on one of the student council committees.

Sophomore assembly, parties, homeroom programs, and football bus trips are a few of the activities in which students may participate during the year to make high-school life more active than junior high.

Dungaree Ball was the theme for the sophomore party at which Carol Wheeler was crowned "Dungaree Doll" by Walter Taylor, president of the class. Carol was elected by popular vote of the sophomore class.

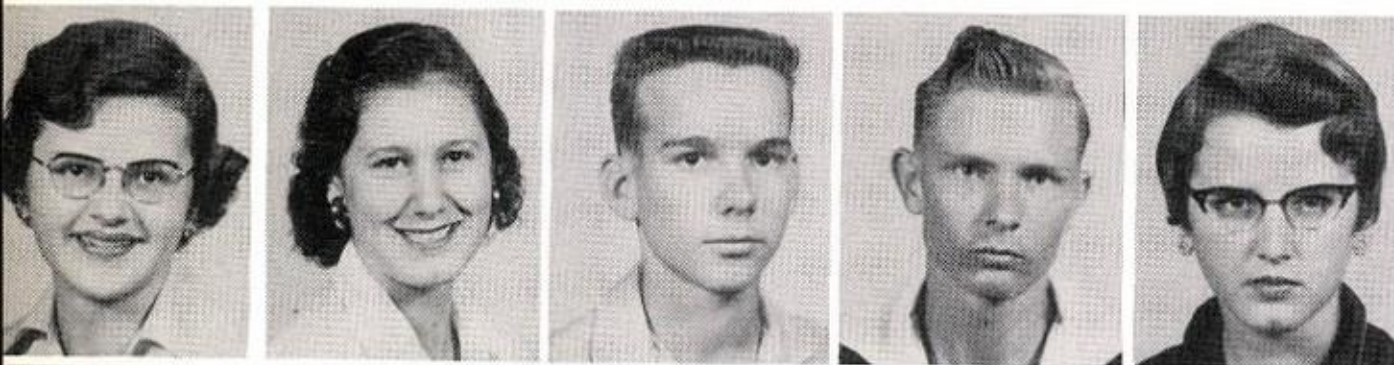

Homeroom programs are a weekly activity in high-school life. They consist of panel discussions, games, outside speakers, and other entertainment.

Mrs. B. R. Brunson's homeroom, at the right is shown watching a film during the homeroom program.

One of Tom S. Lubbock's practices is to charter buses as transportation for students who wish to go to the out-of-town games. Shown entering the bus after the San Angelo game are sophomores, Angie Hawkins, La Rue Elliott, and Barbara Ann Woolsey.

Shown issuing sophomore petitions is Mike Robinson, junior, to Sophomores Susan Philbrick and Myrl Raines. The petitions are issued to students wishing to run for vice president. To make the petition valid, the candidate must get signatures from 18 per cent of the sophomore class.

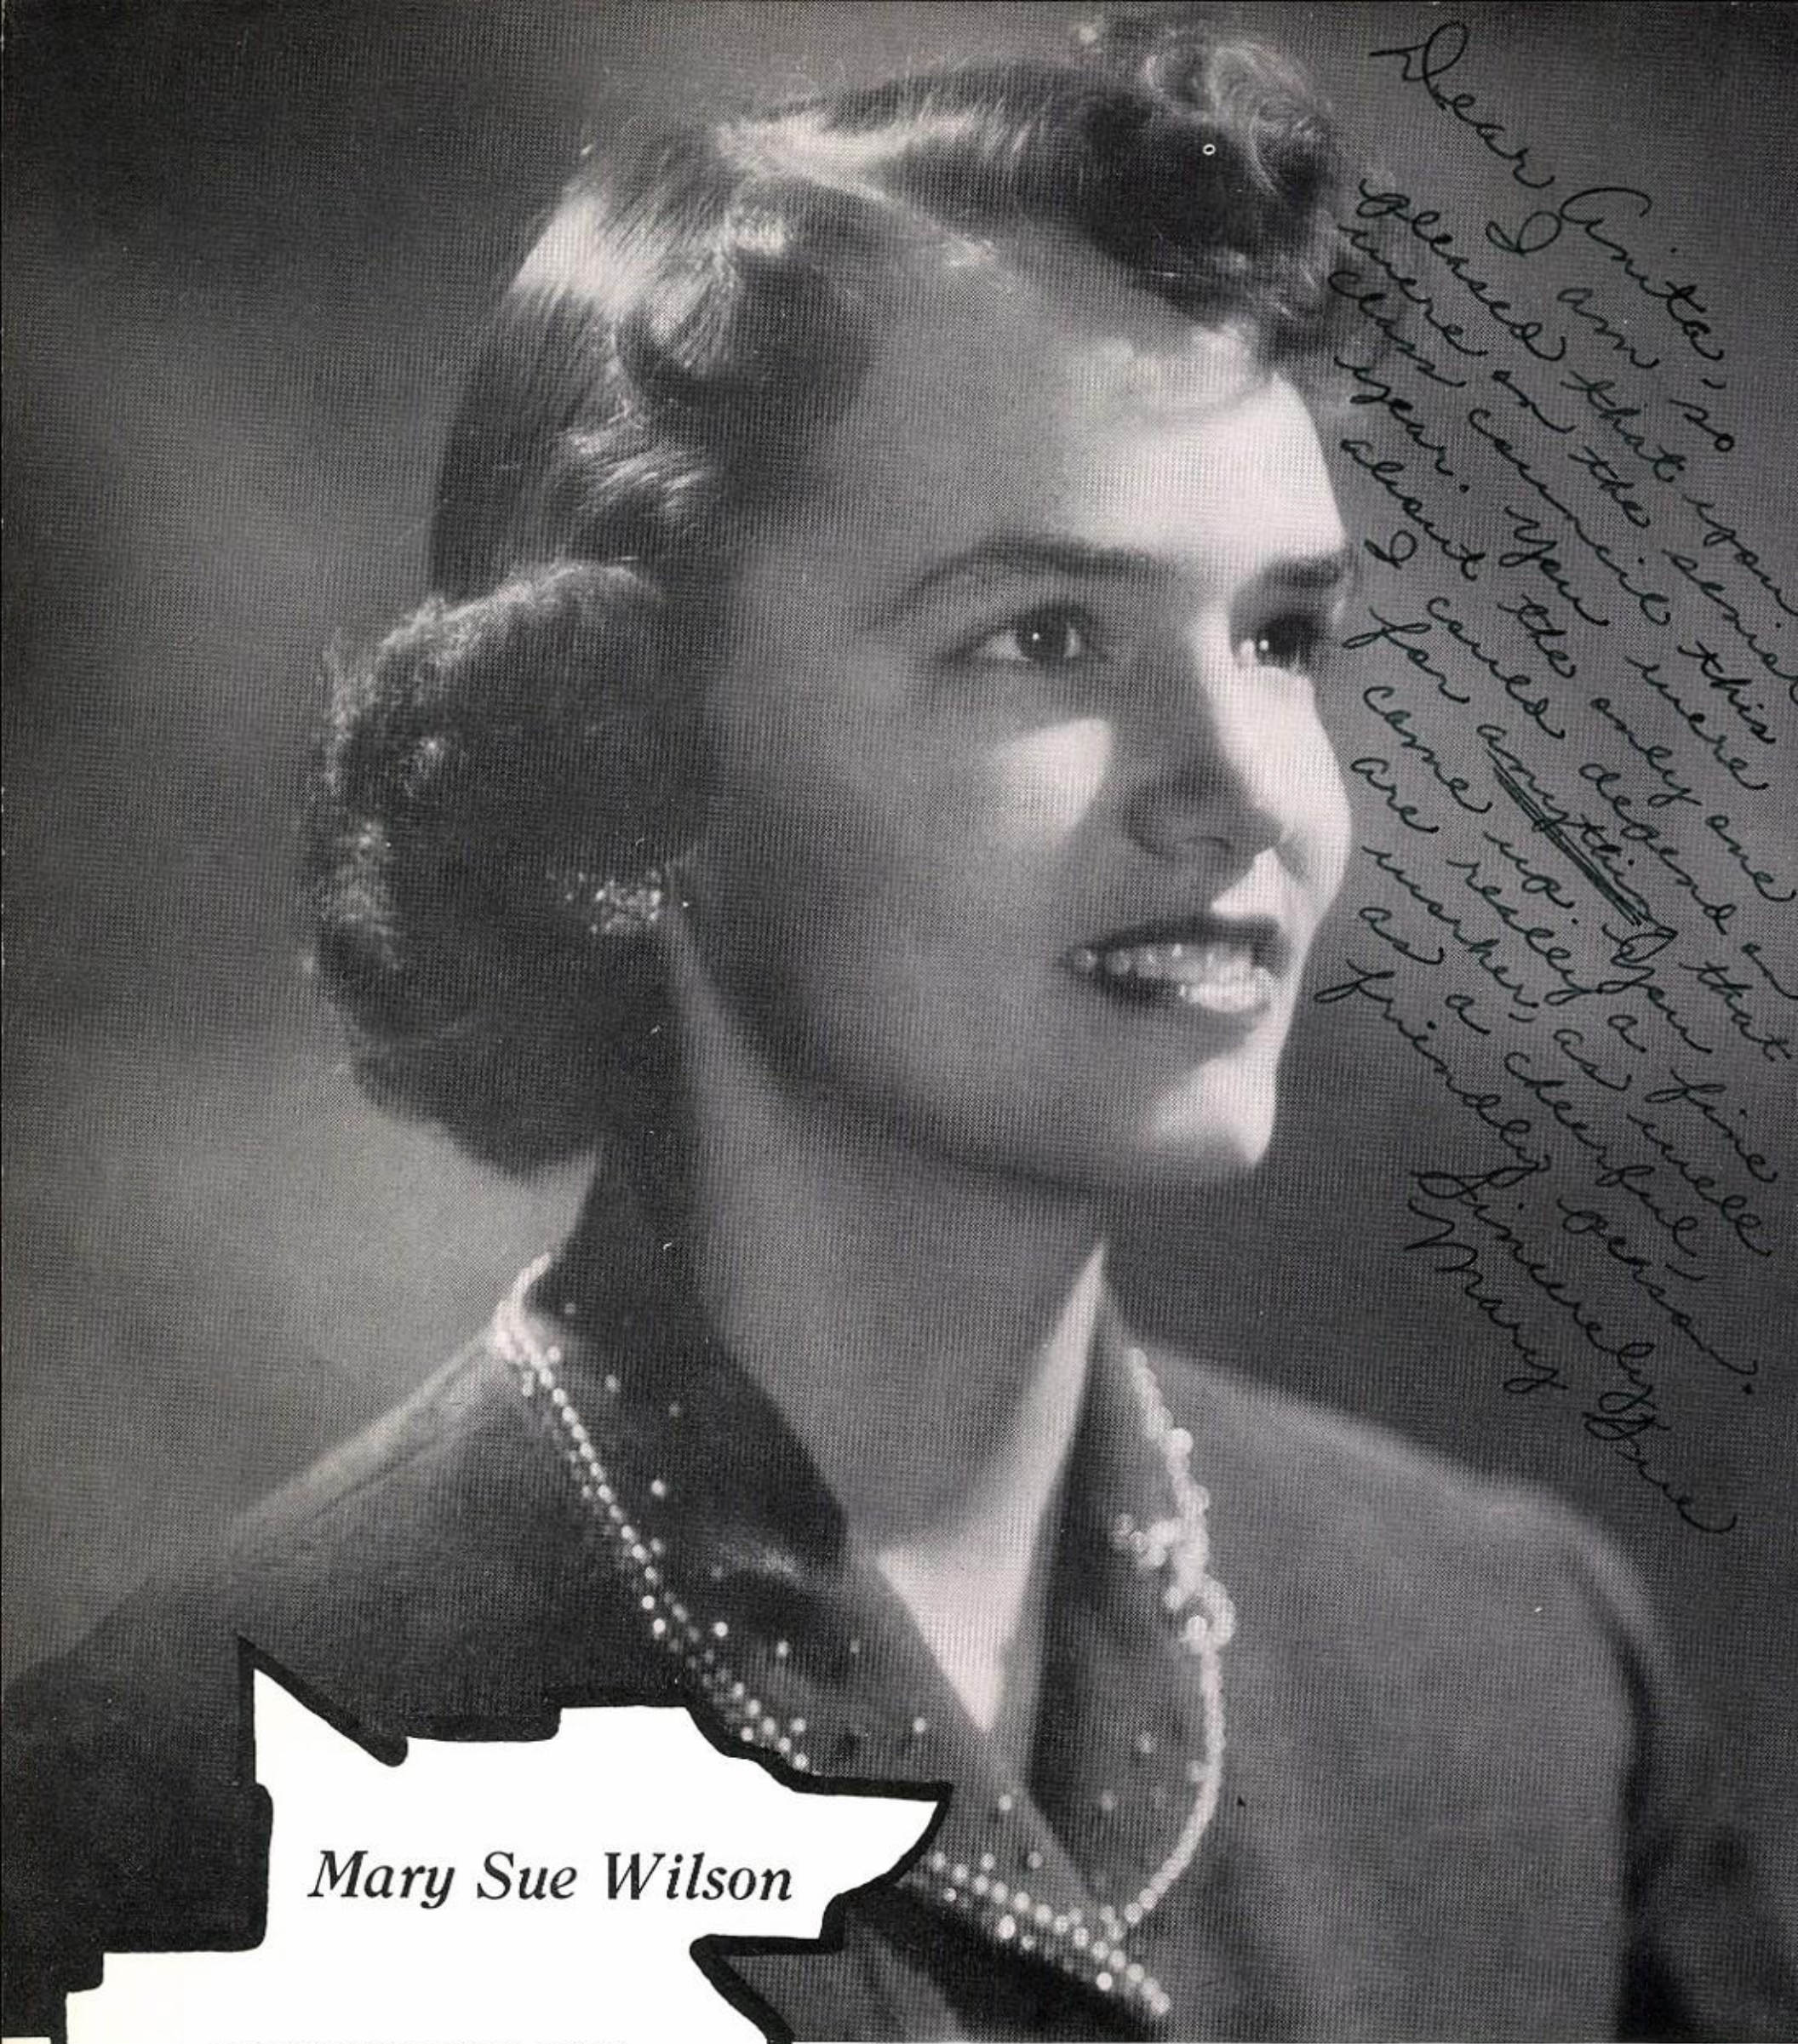

Dead Week—The name may sound dead, but sophomores found they had to keep busy to pass the nine weeks' test. Pictured cramming for exams are Presley Hopper, Jim Roberts, Anna June Jones, and Sara Chumley.

Senior Girls Selected Each Month

Each month during the school year a senior girl is honored at a meeting of the B-PW Club. These girls are selected by a committee composed of Mrs. Ethel Terrell, Mrs. Travis Hammer, Mrs. Everett Carver, Miss Laurene Bussey, and Miss Glenys Honey. The girls are chosen on a basis of their character, moral and ethical standards, leadership, and service.

This year the girls have attended the B-PW meetings with a girl from Monterey, and each told activities and honors held by the other. Shown above are, front row, Peggy Hallahan, April; Judy Sandy, May; Jo Marie Boothe, February; Beth Davidson, January; Aretta Jennings, March; Janelle Ohlenbusch, November; Wanda Jo Boyce, December; and Mary Sue Wilson, September. Not pictured is Johnanna Zournas, October.

Junior Rotarians Honored Each Month

Each month of the school year, a senior boy is chosen as Junior Rotarian by a committee composed of Mr. E. W. Reed, Mr. Jay Gordon, Mr. Robert Knight, Mr. E. J. Lowrey, and Mr. Vernon Odom.

Senior boys who were honored as Junior Rotarians for 1955-56 are, front row, David Webb, November; Gordon Deering, February; Bobby Davis, December; Lowell Cross, May; and James West, April. On the back row are Kenny Cummings, October; David Edwards, March; Bill Dean, September; and Don Eddleman, January.

Officers Head TSL Community

Getting practical training in becoming future civic leaders are the Tom S. Lubbock student body officers, pictured above with their city in the background. They are Mike Robinson, vice president and chairman of the safety committee; Johnanna Zournas, secretary and chairman of the assembly committee; Linda Hufstedler, treasurer; Bill Dean, president; and Beth Davidson, head cheerleader and chairman of the courtesy committee.

This year instead of the one large Student Council in TSL, four smaller councils were organized. The All-School Council is made up of student body officers, class officers, and committee chairmen. The Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Councils are made up of class officers and homeroom representatives. The All-School Council meets on alternate Mondays and Wednesdays; the class councils on alternate Wednesdays.

Sponsors Advise Student Councils; Representatives Report Events

Mrs. B. E. Gordon is serving refreshments to Mr. Marvin Armstrong at the P.-T.A. Open House Sept. 15. The purpose of this annual Open House is for parents to become acquainted with the TSL teachers and the school.

I-SCC Telethon, Youth Week Held

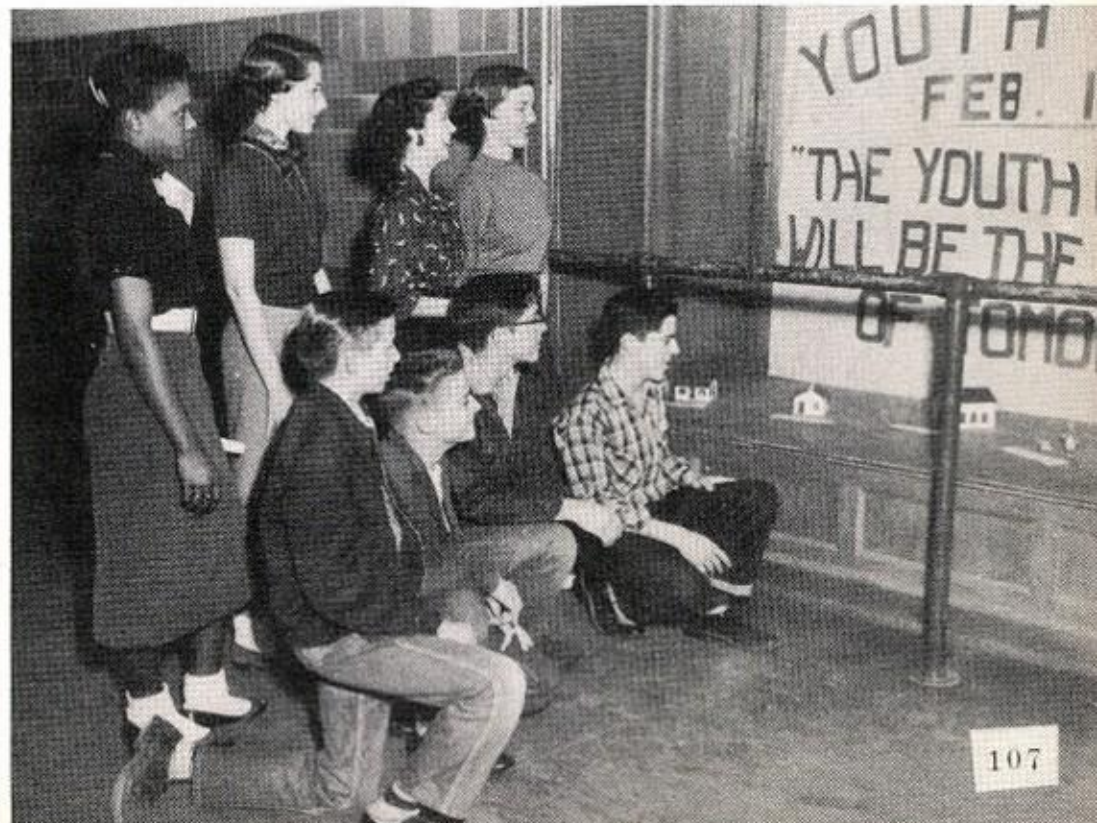

The Inter-School Citizenship Committee consists of representatives from the four junior highs and three high schools.

The I-SCC is a branch of the Student Council. Its activities include sponsoring the Halloween telethon, Youth Week, and a series of television and radio programs in the spring.

The officers of the I-SCC include Carol Cromer, president, sophomore at TSL; Roxie Ohlenbusch, secretary, O. L. Slaton; Shirley Rose Brewer, parliamentarian, Dunbar; and Jane Sessums, reporter, Monterey.

Youth Week, February 13-19, with the theme "The Youth of Today are The Leaders of Tomorrow" was concluded by a youth rally and a banquet at the First Methodist Church. Featured speaker was Mr. R. G. LeTourneau, a businessman and evangelist from Longview. Mr. LeTourneau is shown at right as he gives his youth week speech. The representatives from TSL shown in the lower left hand picture are David Edwards, Sharon English, Carol Cromer, seated, and Kenneth Blackford.

Typical Round-Up Held Amid Duster

Blowing dust, boots, blowing dust, chaps, blowing dust, levis, spurs, and ten gallon hats were familiar sights Feb. 24, as Lubbock High School held its annual Round-Up celebration amid the worst duster in ten years with winds in gusts up to 85 miles per hour.

With Mr. Harvey L. Dunn, LHS mathematics teacher, calling and Tommy Hancock and his Roadside Playboys furnishing the music, the high-spirited LHS boys "see-sawed their pretty little babes" around the gym.

Promenading clockwise to the Texas Star are couples, Dale Hodges and Charlene Howard, Carey Spikes and Mary Pfingsten, Allen Jones and Barbara Barkley, and Morris Bird and Celia Burnett.

Pep Rallies Boom With 'Satisfied'

Beth Davidson, cheerleader for the past two years and now head yell-leader at TSL, plans and directs the pep rallies and is Chairman of the Student Council Courtesy Committee. She has introduced many new yells, including "Satisfied," which is one of the more popular.

Student Operetta

One of the fall assembly speakers, Karl Dockray, Lubbock's 1955 community ambassador to Turkey, spoke to the student body on his summer tour of Turkey. Karl lived with a Turkish family and observed their customs. Films were shown of the places he visited. Karl is a former Westerner and is shown with one of his former teachers, Miss Laurene Bussey.

The play "Why the Chimes Rang," was presented by the speech department of Tom S. Lubbock for a Christmas assembly. The play depicted the value of self-sacrifice, as the chimes began to ring when an unselfish lad gave his last pennies. Members of the cast are, seated, Jimmy Oldham, Peggy Hallahan, and Weldon Maxey; standing is Oris Robertson.

In the annual FHA assembly students were reminded how important a daily visit to the Health Station is to a person's health. The "pumps" at the health station contain the necessary foods for good diets. Martha Sue Medley, center, instructed patients Geraldine Lokey, left, and Mary Alice McElwee, right, how to improve their health by eating proper foods.

Visiting Tom S. Lubbock for the fifth consecutive year, Dr. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent emeritus of the Atlanta Ga. Public schools, delivered a series of lectures dealing with teen-age problems. He also spoke to the P-TA at their regular meeting. Shown interviewing Dr. Sutton are Jo Marie Boothe and Carolyn Mimms, WESTERNER WORLD co-editors.

Sparks Assemblies

Bop and jazz filled the air as the Dunbar Combo came into the picture to present the annual Dunbar High School exchange assembly. The featured vocalist, Ella Rae, set a definite beat with "Mercy, Mercy" and "Shake, Rattle and Roll." The Combo was directed by Mr. Roy Roberts, who also plays the alto saxophone. The group is pictured at the right.

"I reform spoiled brats," commented Mr. John Dallavaux as he spoke for the first time at the annual courtesy assembly, Dec. 1, for Lubbock High students.

Mr. Dallavaux has spent each spring and fall for the past fifteen years making lecture tours and stressing respect and courtesy to teenagers.

Also pictured are Beth Davidson, head cheerleader; and Bill Dean, student body president.

"Down in the Valley," Lubbock High's first student operetta, was presented Nov. 23 by the music and speech departments under the direction of Mrs. Everett Carver and Mr. Jack Meares.

Characters pictured at lower right are Rodney Hill, a plantation singer; Carey Spikes, as Brack Weaver; Judy Sandy, as Jenny Parsons; Mary Pfingsten, as Jenny's friend; and Leon Weaver, as Pa.

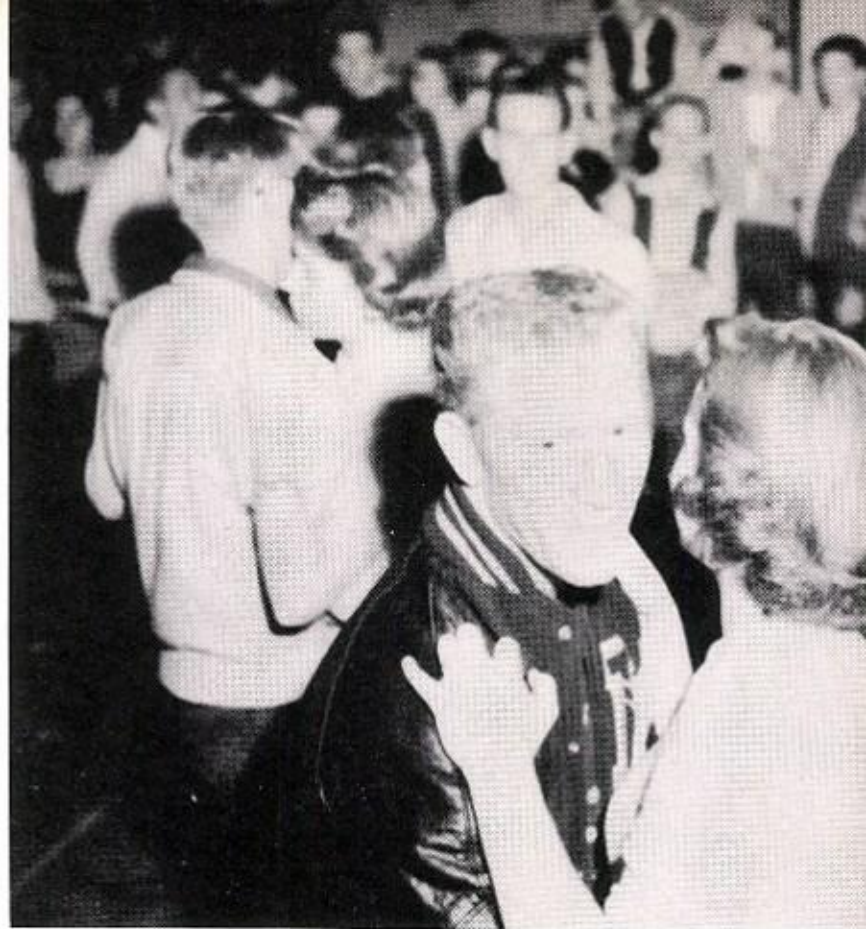

"Fellowship of Christian Athletes," was the theme of the assembly presented Nov. 17. The F. C. A. is a movement to confront athletes with the challenge of living a Christian life.

'Bop' Livens Dances

The recreation committee sponsors dances after the football games, sock-hops after some of the basketball games, all school parties, and Round-Up. The highlight of the year is the all school party that climaxes Round-Up where dancing seems to be the main event. The most popular dance of the year was the "bop" and the craze is still in full swing.

"Swing your partner," was a familiar phrase at the square dance at Round-Up. Shown at the left are Hinda Kahn and her partner as they dance to the music of Tommy Hancock and his Road Side Playboys.

LHS Entertains Guests March 13

LHS was host to guests at its P-TA Open House held March 13. Observing displays in art room 106 are Ludonna Peek, Monterey senior, Lou Morris, LHS senior, and their dates. This room had pastel drawings featured on the bulletin board, student exhibits on the desks and in the show case, and demonstrations of silk screen printing, block printing, pottery making, and architectural drawing.

Lynda Farris, her father, Mr. Olen Farris, and her little sister and brother, are shown as they observe the different displays preserved in alcohol in biology room 211. Besides these displays, there were posters, aquariums, terrariums, a skeleton, and other scientific material.

Kenny Cummings is shown demonstrating a spectroscope, an instrument for analyzing light, while Elizabeth Brown looks at the varied colors. Standing behind, waiting their turn, are Martin Benson, Sally Mahon, Andrea Byrns, and Susan Mansell. Other demonstrations in the physics room were those of magnetism, sound electronics, and light. Also a place for constructing telescopes and an amateur radio station were set up.

Nancy Wilson, center, is shown as she, her mother, Mrs. Watson Wilson, and Mrs. Robert Carter, homemaking teacher, view and discuss a child's dress that was on display in room 303. Other dresses and various posters were also featured.

THE WESTERNER WORLD

'SPORTSMANSHIP - THEN VICTORY'

'Fourth Estaters' Publish Bi-Weekly

THE WESTERNER WORLD, bi-weekly newspaper of Tom S. Lubbock, under the direction of Mrs. Travis Hammer and the co-editorship of Carolyn Mimms and Jo Marie Boothe, won an All-Texas Rating at the Texas High School Press Association at Denton in December.

Last year's WESTERNER WORLD, a weekly publication with Mrs. Dick Cozby as sponsor, won a First Class National Honor Rating.

LHS members of the Fourth Estate spend many hours each week doing their specific jobs. Pictures must be taken, news gathered, and stories written; then comes copyreading and proofreading for errors. Meanwhile, the editors are planning page layouts and writing headlines and the advertising staff is selling ad space to local merchants. Finally, on Thursday afternoon all these efforts are combined and the newspaper is ready to go to press.

Reporters Learn Newspaper Style

With at least 20 inches published in the Westerner World, a journalism student becomes a cub reporter. They are Martha Stephens Smith, Karen Wood, Darla Kelley, Eddie Bradford, Perry Bridges, and Marilyn Gollighugh, seated.

Shown searching through the Westerner World files for ideas are, Helen Clark, assistant book-keeper, Bill Dean, assistant sports editor, and Linda Pigford, cub reporter.

Looking through a newspaper are the special reporters, writers of 100 or more published inches. Seated, they are Gary Cunningham, Bill Cline, and Becky Allen; standing, Carol Cromer, Flora Millis and Sandra Carter Copp.

1955 Annual Wins An All-State Rating

Maintaining the high standards of past years, the 1955 WESTERNER, sponsored by Mrs. Dick Cozby, won First Class in the National Scholastic Press Association Contest and All-Texas at the Texas High School Press Association in Denton.

Staff Captures Year's Activities

Yearbook workers strive to capture the year's activities by giving a pictorial review and by reflecting the personality of the student body. They attempt to do this through their art work, choice of pictures and words, and by making a book which will depict the year for each student.

Shown in the left top corner are the students participating in Interscholastic League number-sense. Seated are Jerry Milburn, Vivian Lowe, and Fred Followill; standing are Max Dannecker and Donald Weldon.

In the center are pictured the members of the Interscholastic League ready writing contest sponsored by Mrs. R. C. Hughes. They are, seated, Marion Lynch, Frank Clover, Lynna King; and Mrs. Hughes and Royce Bankhead, standing.

In the lower left corner are the various students who tried out for Interscholastic League typing and shorthand. On the left of the picture are the shorthand contestants, Joann Buzbee, Sue Cockran, and Marlene Poor, seated; and Miss Marietta Montgomery, shorthand sponsor, and Rebecca Pierce.

On the right side of the picture are the typists: Ottama Farr, and Celia Burnett, seated; Robert Johnson, Wanda Boyce, and Mr. Tommy Joe Largent, typist sponsor, standing.

ue Provides n Literary Events

The students who tried out to participate in Inter-scholastic journalism are, seated, Carolyn Mimms, Jo Marie Boothe, Becky Allen, Barbara Miller, and Jolene Caffee. Standing are David Ramsey, Gary Cunningham, Eddie Joe Bradford, and Barbara Thompson.

Mrs. William F. McGhee, speech teacher, is pictured with a group of the students who participated in various Interscholastic League speech events. They are, seated, Robert Adams, extemporaneous speech; and Lonita Gamblin, debate. Standing are Mrs. McGhee, Glenn Woody, declamation; Shelia Cline, debate; Sandra Smith, Rebecca Pierce, and Peggy Hallahan, poetry recitation.

The officers of the 63-member Westerners Choir, who are elected each year in September by their fellow choir members, carry out various duties, such as managing ventilation, seeing that the risers are set up correctly, and caring for the robes and music. Seated is Martha Key, accompanist; first row, Marvin Armstrong, vice president; Leslie McNeil, president; Troy Fields, vice president; second row, Ann Cole, librarian; Judy Sandy, reporter; Deanna Austin, secretary; Joe Humphrey, robe custodian; Nan Kelly, librarian; Barbara Barkley, treasurer; and Leon Weaver, librarian.

Kaufman - Hart Comedy Presented By Seniors

In a scene from this year's senior play, "You Can't Take It With You," Allen Jones, as a representative of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, loses his temper in an argument with Martin Vanderhof, played by Leon Weaver, over the subject of back taxes.

The middle picture shows Marvin Armstrong, as Paul Sycamore, lighting firecrackers as Kenny Cummings, Ed, and Roland Myers, Mr. de Pinna, engage in a heated verbal exchange.

In the picture on the lower right, Lavada Golliugh, as Essie, endeavors to stop the arrest of Ed by Detectives "Chub" Lowrimore and Martin Benson.

Seated around the table in the last scene of the play are Marvin Armstrong, Paul Sycamore; David Edwards, Mr. Kirby; Barry Buchanan, Tony Kirby; Sandra Hendrix, Alice Sycamore; Mary Sue Wilson, Olga Katrina; Roland Myers, Mr. de Pinna; Glenn Woody, Donald; Leon Weaver, Martin Vanderhof; Rebecca Pierce, Mrs. Sycamore; Wanda Boyce, Reba; Lavada Golliugh, Essie; Peggy Hallahan, Mrs. Kirby; and Kenny Cummings, Ed Carmichael.

The senior play stage crew are shown back stage taking a moment of rest. They are Ann Millikin, Elizabeth Brown, Don Lowrimore, Roberta Brown, Susan Mansell, seated; Neal Hicks, Oris Robertson, James Chatman, Lynda Pigford, Barbara Barkley, Lois Taylor, Jeunene Boyd, Helen Austin, and Bob Vaughn, standing.

Leon Weaver, Grandfather, looks on as the pixie Lavada Gollihugh, whirls around showing him her new dance.

One-Act Farce Given In League Competition

"The Farce of the Worthy Master Pierre Patelin" was the one-act play presented by LHS for Interscholastic League competition.

Troupe Plays For Children

Members of the Childrens' Theater presented to elementary school pupils, "The Little Shoemaker," a play designed for the smaller set which told the fairy tale of the little shoemaker and the elves. This play was one of two given this year by the Childrens' Theater.

"Why the Chimes Rang" was presented by Childrens' Theater players at the annual Christmas assembly.

This play told the charming story of the chapel bells which would ring at Christmas only when a suitable gift was placed on the altar. Kings and other assorted nobility and people of means placed gifts of great value upon the altar, but only little Pedro's gift of kindness prompted the heavenly bells to toll.

Kathy Robinson Crowned; 12 On All-State Band

A queen and her attendants are chosen each year, by secret ballot, at the annual band banquet which is held exclusively for members of the band.

This year's queen and attendants, pictured at right, are Mary Alice McElwee, attendant; Kathleen Robinson, queen; and Doris Fields, attendant. Mary Alice and Doris are majorettes in the marching band and Kathleen holds the second chair position in the flute section.

These officers are responsible for the planning of parties for the Westerner Band and visiting bands.

Directly below are the members of the All-State Band who were selected at the regional try-outs to represent Lubbock at the All-State Band Clinic which was held in Dallas, Feb. 8, 9, 10.

Westerner Band Provides Music For Student Body

The majorettes, posed at the right, are girls chosen from the regular rank and file of the band for their personalities and twirling abilities. They play in the band at all times except when the band is marching. The first majorette is Rosemary Kay, whose regular job is playing the clarinet. Majorettes Patsy Williamson, second from left, and Doris Fields, on the end, also play clarinets. Mary Alice McElwee, third from left, is no exception to the clarinet trend as she plays the bass clarinet.

Geraldine Lokey, Kenny Cummings, Patricia Ann Ferrell, Sammye Thompson, Margie Higgins, and Mary Lou Mayfield. On the third row from the back is Stanley Mitchell, Spurgeon Strandtmann, Dolores Fowler, Tommy Warden, Nancy Hodges, Charlene Castleberry, Evelyn McCown, Donald Langston, E. J. Matsler, Ronald Lemon, Bobby Wright, Wilma Lester, Peggy Gerron, Bobby Daniels, Alice Jane Veazey, Newton Case, Lynn Powell, Jimmy Ratliff, and Joyce James. The front row includes Lowell Cross, Gary Joiner, Judy Sliter, Jimmy Thompson, Tommy Ohnemus, Sara Beth Greer, Jeanne Jones, Sharon Sitterly, Ruth Brown, Kathleen Robinson, and Bobbie Lemon.

Under the direction of Mr. Paul Branom, pictured above, the Westerner Band has won more honors than he can shake his baton at.

Since Mr. Branom's arrival here in 1948, the band has received many awards at the Tri-State Band Festival held in Enid, Okla. For the past five years the Westerner Band has won Sweepstakes honors at the contest which is the largest of its kind in the world with over one hundred representative bands from 14 different states attending.

With their instrumentation built up to symphonic proportions, the band came home from last year's contest as the outstanding band of the festival.

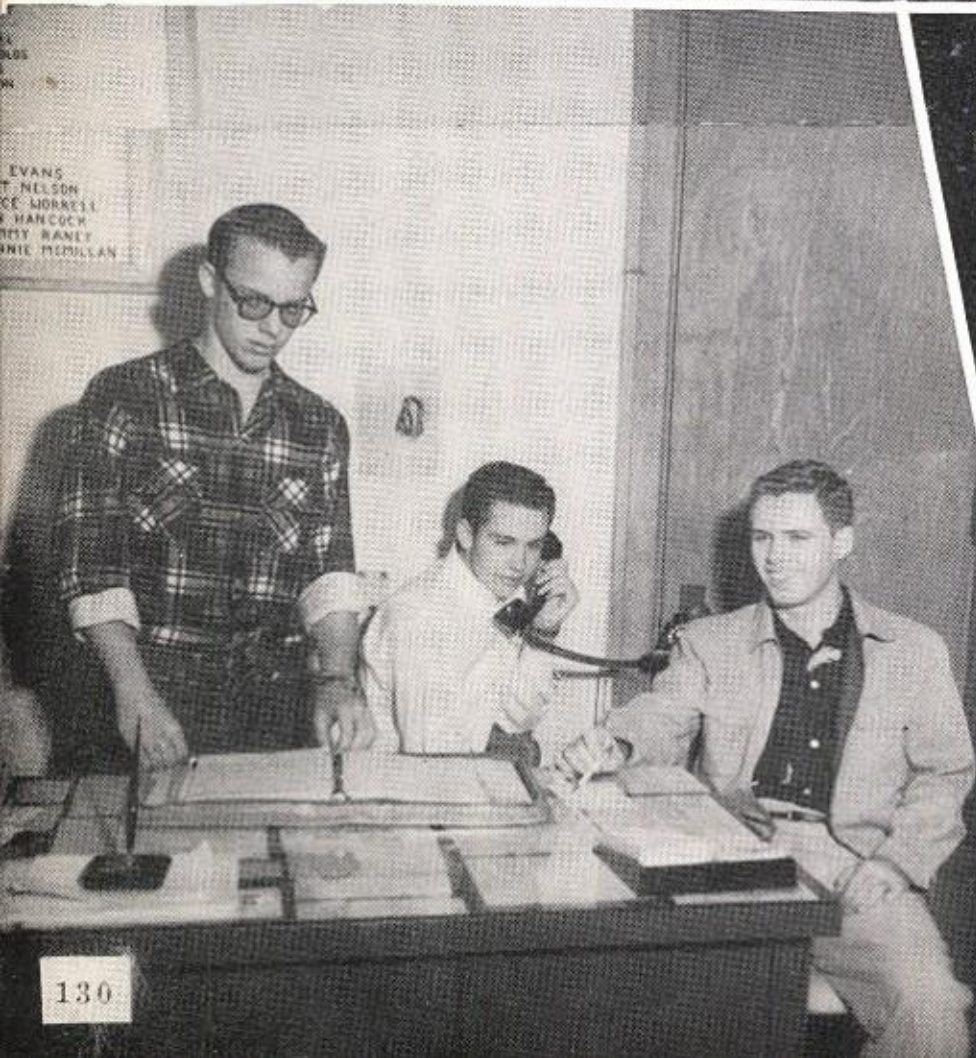

LHS Council Promotes

Decorating the halls at Christmas and maintaining the appearance of the patios, school grounds, and auditorium are some of the duties of the plant and decoration committee of the Lubbock High School Student Council, headed by Dewey Bryant and Peggy Atkinson, co-chairmen. Pictured are Neal Hicks, Peggy, Jimmy Oldham, Kenneth Blackford and Dewey, on the ladder.

Janelle Ohlenbusch and Ann Welch, co-chairmen of the publicity-information committee, are shown as they present Dale Hodges with a check for $5 for designing the cover for the "Who's Who," student and teacher directory. Besides editing the "Who's Who," this committee is responsible for all Student Council publicity, and they are in charge of Student Council Week.

Busy at work in the new Student Council office Mickey McDonald, Mike Robinson, chairman of the safety committee, and Gordon Deering, who have been working with the Citizens' Traffic Commission in trying to organize a Juvenile Traffic court in Lubbock, much like the ones now operating in Dallas and Amarillo. High school students, under the direction of an adult adviser, run this court on Saturdays, trying juveniles from 10 to 16 who have received tickets for violations of traffic laws. Unable to levy fines, they can sentence the law-breakers to attend a school for a week on traffic safety, sponsored by the Texas Safety Department.

Symbolic of traffic safety around Lubbock High School is Mr. Mark V. "Pop" McCurry, city policeman, who is seen below directing traffic during the February snow storm.

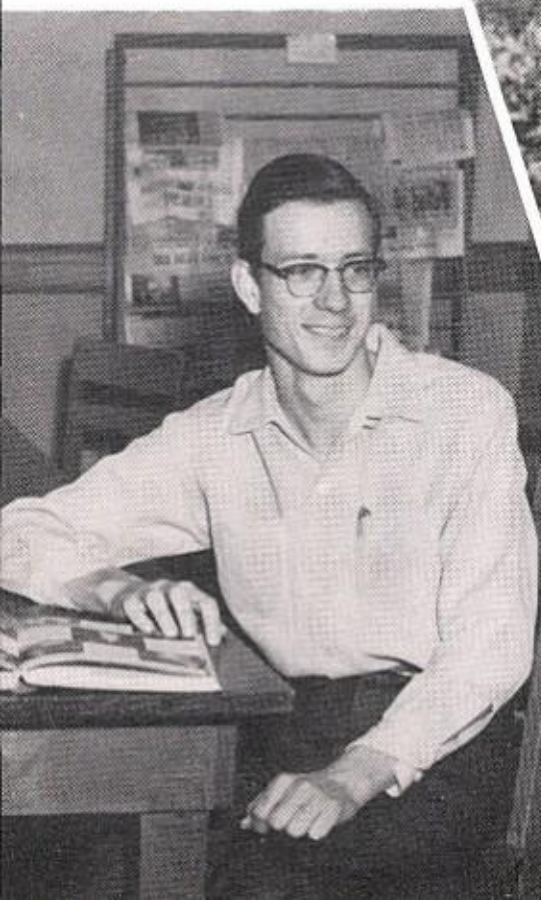

New Honor System

Hinda Kahn, chairman of the honor system committee, is shown as she explains a few of the principles of this new project to Johnny Oldham, John Bashore, and Suzanne Ratisseau. This committee is studying and partially putting into effect this honor system.

Pictured looking at the Round-Up program cover are Winn Sue Sherrill and John O'Haugherty, co-chairmen; Nancy Adams and Sharon English, committee workers. Round-Up is one of the main projects of the recreation committee, along with all-school parties, parties after the games, and sock-hops.

Giving the class favorites a close race were Kenny Cummings, senior boy; Mary Sue Wilson, senior girl; La Rue Mauldin, junior; and Carol Wheeler, sophomore; as runners up. The student body voted on the favorites by secret ballot. The favorites are shown on pages 92 to 95.

Chosen by the teachers, Mary Sue Wilson and Joe Pillars were named Mr. and Miss Courtesy of 1956 for Lubbock Senior High School. They were presented in an assembly climaxing Courtesy Week, at which Mr. John Dallavaux spoke to the student body and faculty.

La Trezieme Musique Has Caroling Party

The 33 members of La Trezieme Musique met every Wednesday afternoon in the band room under the guidance of Mr. Paul Branom, sponsor. Programs at the meetings featured special guest speakers and the traditional sophomore and junior programs.

The band girls' club, organized in 1947 to develop a closer relationship among band students, spotlighted socials which included an initiation tea, square dance, caroling party, spring banquet, and steak fry.

First semester officers for Band Girls' Club are, standing, Mary Alice McElwee, social committee chairman; Judy Sliter, reporter; Joyce James, vice-president; Mr. Paul Branom, sponsor; seated, Alice Jane Veazey, song leader; Sue Ann Moore, president; and Kathleen Robinson, secretary.

Second semester officers on the back row are Nancy Hodges, vice president; Dolores Fowler, reporter; Judy Sliter, parliamentarian; Lynn Powell, program chairman; front row, Mary Mayfield, secretary; Kathleen Robinson, treasurer; Danna D. Long, president; and Doris Fields, social chairman.

Morning Watch Guest Speakers Give Devotionals

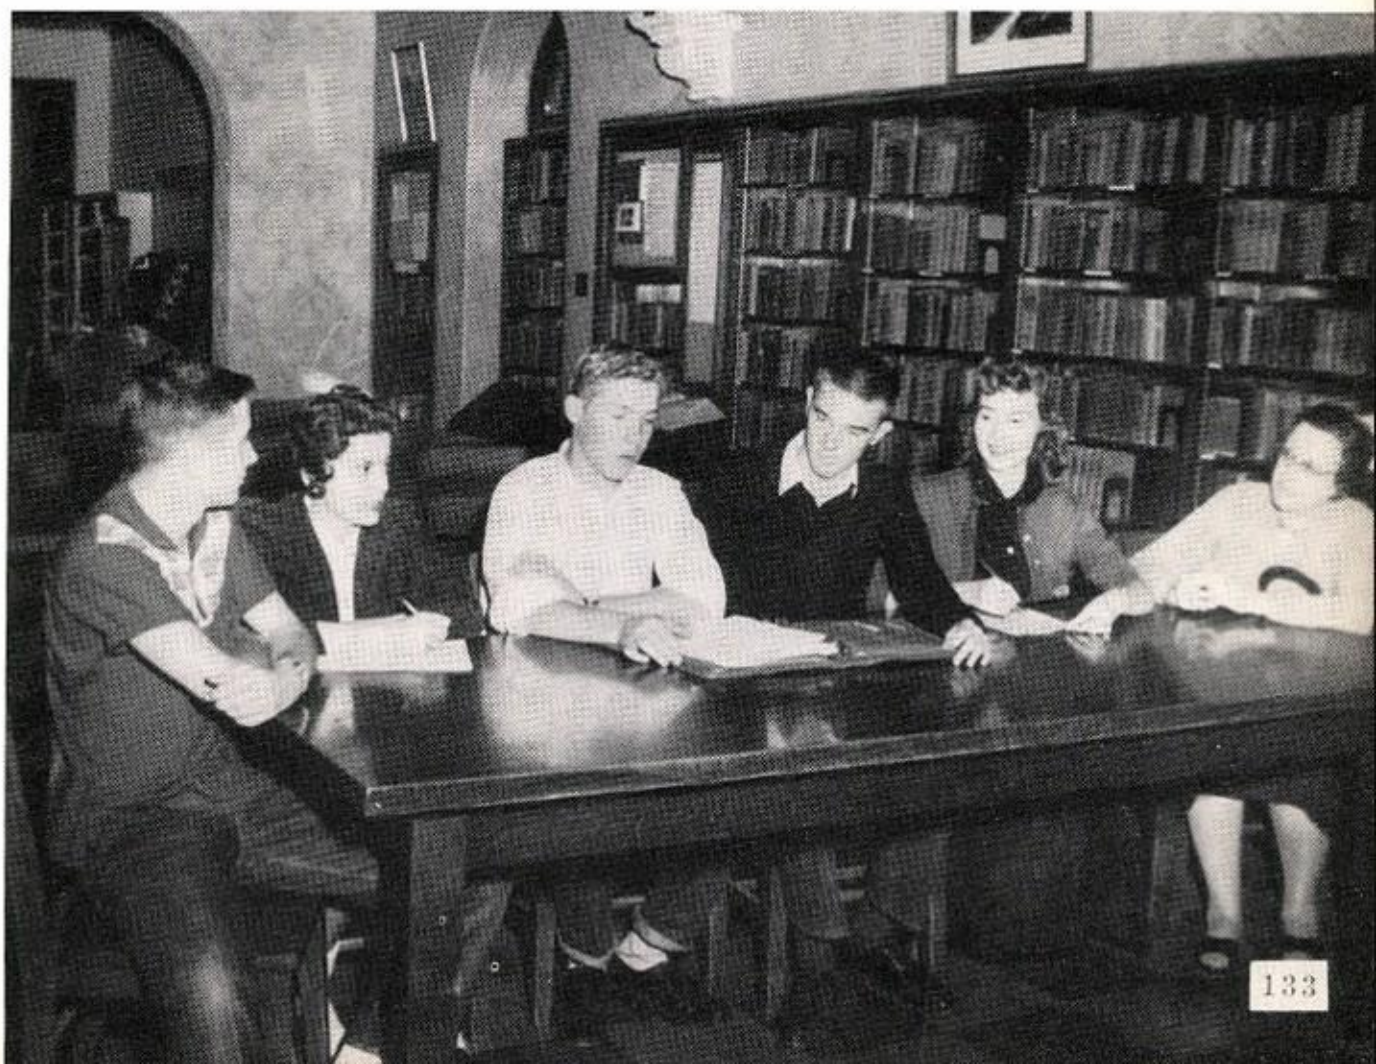

Devotionals given by guest speakers and songs sung by Lubbock High School students constitute a typical meeting of Morning Watch. This organization for non-denominational worship was begun in 1942 by Miss Irene Armes, English teacher.

This organization meets every school morning at 8:10 in room 219 under sponsorship of Mrs. Euna Watkins, science teacher. Students who attend hear such speakers as Mr. Wagoner Carr, house representative to the Texas Legislature; Mr. David Moore, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church; Johnny Webb, sophomore; and Mr. Charlie Guy, editor of the Avalanche-Journal, as well as student speakers.

The top picture shows Lubbock High School students listening to a guest speaker giving a devotional in Morning Watch which meets at 8:10 a.m. each day in room 219.

Morning Watch Council consists of representatives and alternates from each homeroom. Discussing plans for a new constitution are the officers, Jim Hancock, committee chairman; Deloris McKee, reporter; Pat Hendon, president; Marvin Armstrong, committee chairman; Jean Underwood, secretary; and Mrs. Euna Watkins, sponsor. Not shown is Patti Neal, vice-president.

Below are additional members of NHS. They are, front row, Shannon Golding, Sharon English, and Johnnana Zournas; second row, John O'Haugherty, Kenny Cummings, Marlene Porr, Carol McWilliams, and Marion John. The NHS club met on TTF Tuesdays at 8 a.m. in room 218. Programs included such things as debates, talks, and musical numbers.

Quill and Scroll Publishes Bulletin

As a project this year, members of Quill and Scroll sent a three-page pamphlet and posters to junior high schools advertising the high school publications department.

Students eligible for membership in the society are junior or senior publications students with no grade below a C and the recommendation of the sponsor. They must have 100 inches of editorial copy published, 350 inches of advertising published, or a semester's work on the annual.

Officers of Quill and Scroll are shown discussing plans for the poster project. Looking at the poster are Mrs. Travis Hammer, sponsor; Mary Sue Wilson, president; Janelle Ohlenbusch, secretary; Jolene Caffee, parliamentarian and membership chairman; Jo Marie Boothe, social chairman; and Carolyn Mimms, vice-president.

Spring pledges at the second semester Jake Night party were Robert Rodgers, dressed as a golf club, and Barry Buchanan, required to dress as a golf tee, pictured below.

Socials of this club included two initiations, a banquet, and a Bermuda-shorts picnic. Members attending the Jake Night initiation in the fall were Sandra Hendrix, required to dress as Dennis the Menace; Linda Kelley, a football; and Kay Myers, an ivy plant. On the back row are Patsy Painter, mermaid; Eddie Joe Bradford, Bermuda sock; Mary Ann Smalley, a "what'cha ma call-it"; Barbara Miller, Liberate; and Brit Myers, Marilyn Monroe.

Looking on as Kenny Cummings, Barry Buchanan, and Peggy Hallahan act out a part in a play are other members of National Thespians. They are Jeaneene Boyd, Royce Hunter, Helen Smith Austin,

National Thespians, Troupe 240 Has 27 to Qualify for Membership

Twenty-seven students qualified for National Thespians, Troupe 240, this year. An honorary club for students interested in dramatics, each member had to attain ten points on public acting or stage work as required by National standards and maintain a "C" grade average.

Socials included two initiations, a spring banquet, and a "clash" party.

Listening attentively to Rebecca Pierce, treasurer, are other officers, sponsors, and spring pledges of National Thespians. They are Roland Myers, vice-president; Jackie Blair Lawrence, president; Peggy Hallahan, secretary; and Lavada Golliugh, scribe. Standing are Mr. Jack Mears, Jr., sponsor, Hinda Kahn, Bob Vaughn, Iris Dial, David Edwards, Bettye Jane Fite, and Mrs. William F. McGhee, sponsor. Sheila Cline is not shown.

Spanish Club Sponsors Money-Making Project

El Club Pan Americano sponsors projects to raise money for its annual scholarship of $100. This award is given to a student taking third or fourth year Spanish and planning to take it in college. They also have to pass an examination prepared by Texas Technological College.

Students taking Spanish, or those who have taken it, are eligible for membership. The purpose of the club is to further relations between countries of the American continents.

The top picture shows Spanish club members snatching and grabbing for the "goodies" in the piñata. This crepe paper object was broken by Frankie Ann McCain at the Christmas party in the cafeteria.

An important social event of El Club Americano was the annual initiation banquet, Oct. 25. Officers attending this social at Etter's Rebel Dining Room are Rita Seay, secretary; Robert Adams, president; Melinda Rogers, treasurer; Sarjim Holcomb, freshman at Texas Tech; and sponsors, Mrs. Emmett Burford, and Mr. Max O'Banion.

One of the money-making projects was a cake sale in local stores. Selling cakes were Marialys Hankins and Vivian Lowe.

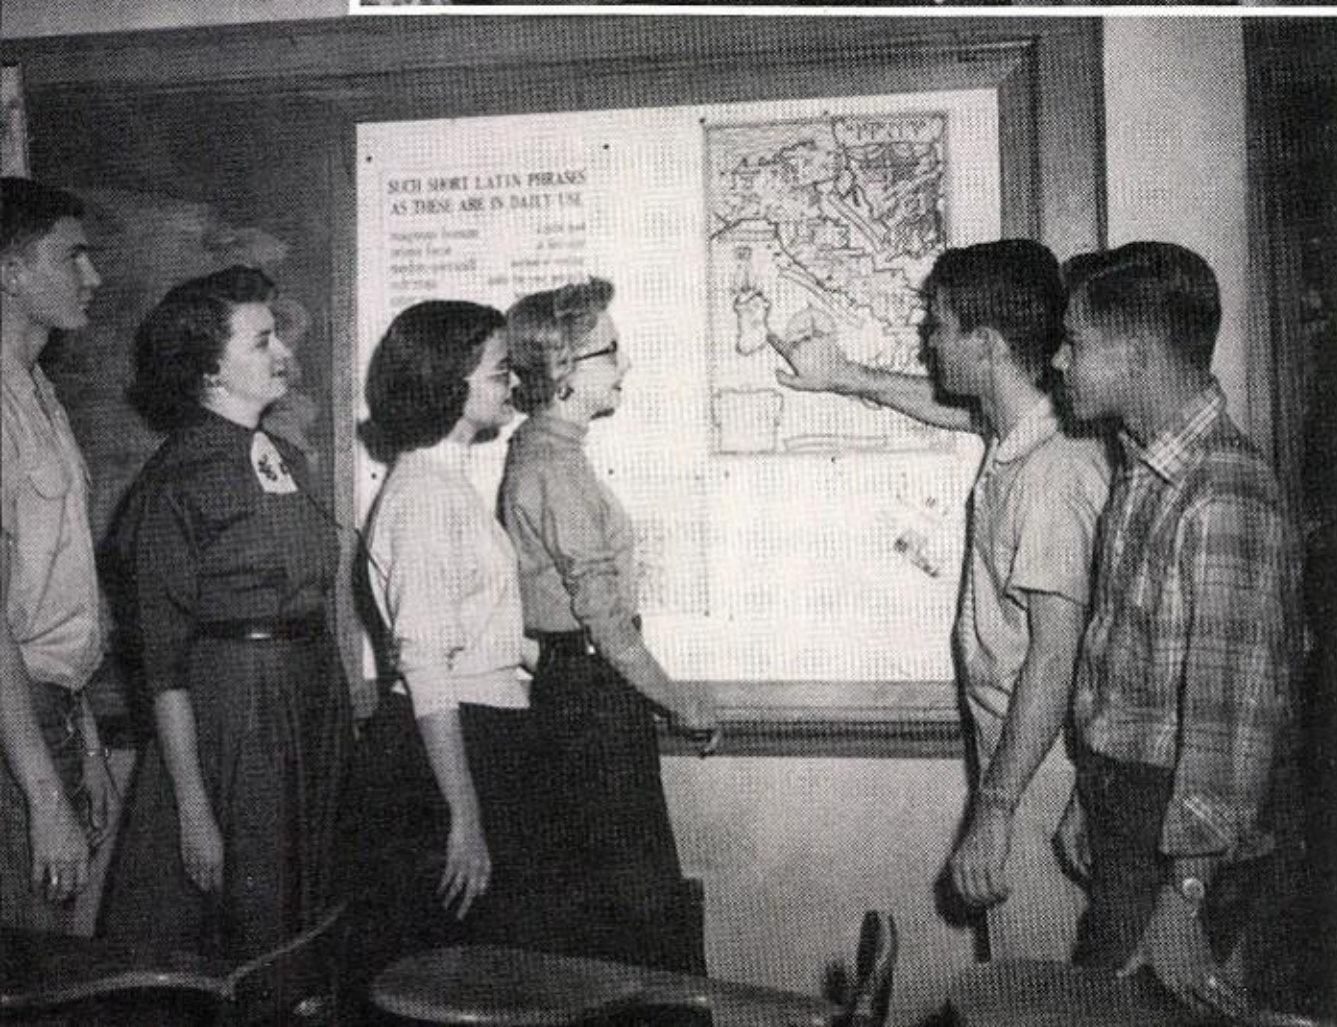

Latin Students Have Initiation

Latin students and those students interested in the study of Roman civilization and life, can be members of Gens Togata. These members are seen in room 119 on MFW Tuesdays.

The 54 Gens Togata members have plays, an initiation, and a banquet each year.

Sponsors of this club are Miss Peggy Mayfield, Mrs. Hal Sullenberger, and Mrs. Michael Pettyjohn.

"The Conspiracy of Rome" in a modern setting was performed by Latin Club members Dick Burr, Martin Benson, Barry Buchanan, Sandra Hendrix, Joe Peddy, and Walter Taylor.

Elsa Dockray, Joe Humphrey, Karen Wood, and James West are watching Jimmy Lou Wilson initiate Walter Taylor.

Officers of the Gens Togata are Robert Johnson, vice-president; Miss Peggy Mayfield, sponsor; Joanna Usry, corresponding secretary; Karen Wood, secretary; Joe Humphrey, president; and Barry Buchanan, treasurer.

Hi-Y Membership Reaches 165

Hi-Y, a club of 165 members, is open to any boy who is interested in serving his community and in living a better life.

To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character is the creed of this club which was founded over 20 years ago.

Hi-Y boys attending the Ninth Annual Hi-Y Youth and Government Conference in Austin Dec. 15-18 are, back row, Frank Clover, John Hermann, and Mr. Odom, sponsor. Front row are Jim Hancock, John O'Haugherty, Robert Adams, and Gordon Deering. Robert was a senator while the others were representatives.

The Hi-Y club is responsible for raising and lowering the flag each day. The three boys shown at right had the job of carrying out this responsibility. Shown as they prepare to take the flag down are Frank Clover, John Hermann, and Robert Adams.

Boys that went to the annual Hi-Y Convention in Wichita Falls Feb. 23-24 are shown as they discuss the good time they had and what they learned. They are Jerry Runnels, Pat Hendon, Gordon Deering, and Don King, seated. Standing are Billy Blann and John O'Haugherty.

Officers Of FHA Club Hold Annual Initiation

A barnyard party, a banquet, a parent party, and the annual FHA and FFA box supper were a few of the activities of the Mary-Emma Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America Club this year. The 129 members also participated in National FHA Week from Oct. 10 to 17, presented an assembly in October entitled "Engine Trouble," and elected a chapter beau. Some of the members attended the area and State FHA meetings in March and April.

Sponsors of the club are shown looking at the display case the members decorated during FHA Week. They are Miss Pat McCutcheon, Mrs. Jack Paige, Mrs. Robert L. Carter, and Miss Patti Pipkin.

At the get-acquainted 'barnyard party' held Sept. 29 are Daphna Dancer, Paula Williams, Lurleen Hatter, Judy Huddle, Linda Wright, Sharon Sitterly, and Joy Darden.

Shown after the city-wide initiation in November are the officers of the FHA Club. They are Sue Moore, recording secretary; Linda Smith, project chairman; La Rue Elliot, degree chairman; Jo Marie Boothe, program chairman; Rebecca Pierce, president; Mary V. Dawson, social chairman; Mary Alice McElwee, point chairman; and Geraldine Lokey, corresponding secretary.

Officers of Y-Teens are shown planning decorations for the annual Sweetheart Banquet held Feb. 14, in the Lubbock High School cafeteria. They are Miss Laurene Bussey, sponsor; Wanda Jo Boyce, president; Ann Welch, treasurer; Patti Neill, secretary; Sharon English, second vice-president; and Mary Sue Wilson, vice-president.

Cabinet members of Y-Teens are Winn Sherrill, worship committee; Mary V. Dawson, music; Sandra Hendrix, social; Janelle Ohlenbusch, program; Annette Rose, publicity; and Johnanna Zournas, service. Sponsors are Mrs. Hal Sullenburger, Miss Ruth Holman, Mrs. Doyle Brooks, Mrs. Doyle Driver, and Miss Marietta Montgomery. Not pictured are Beth Davidson, food and finance; Mrs. Joe M. Davis, Miss Lottie Graves, and Miss Virginia McLean.

Annual Y-Teens' Socials Highlight 1955-56 Year

Y-Teens' socials and activities which highlighted the 1955-56 year included an all-girl clash party, Mother-Daughter Tea, initiation of new members, caroling party, sweetheart banquet, barbecue, and installation of officers. These programs are usually traditional affairs which help to promote the social welfare of this Christian organization.

At the semi-formal initiation Nov. 29 in the First Baptist Church, pledges were pinned by old members. Marilyn Smith, shown in the top picture, is pinning a membership ribbon on Betty Mayne, as Mary Sue Wilson looks on.

Y-Teens members at the caroling party Dec. 19 are Nancy Crawford, Marlene Porr, Sandra Bean, Wanda Crafton, Mary Sue Wilson, Carol Wheeler, Dorothy Allen, Kay Myers, and Marilyn Smith.

The annual Mother-Daughter Tea was held Nov. 13 for the purpose of meeting other members and their mothers. The tea was held in Patsy Thompson's home.

In the picture, hostesses are Mrs. R. Lee Thompson, Miss Laurene Bussey, Mrs. W. A. Boyce, Wanda Jo Boyce, Mrs. Holman Hendrix, and Sandra Hendrix.

D. E. Students Earn While They Learn

Distributive Education students earn while they learn. The purpose of the D. E. club is to foster and teach good business principles. This club has various activities, one of which is the Employee-Employer banquet.

The top picture shows Rila Boren at her place of employment. While working, she puts into practice what she has learned at school.

The officers of D. E. are Rila Boren, secretary; Joan Johnson, treasurer and sweetheart; Billie Lou Osborne, committee chairman; Glen Holt, sergeant-at-arms; Nettie Jo Clark, parliamentarian; Anita Harris Capps, reporter; Mr. L. H. Liston, sponsor; and Prentiss Cunningham, president. Not shown is Kenneth Havis, vice president.

The bottom picture illustrates a typical afternoon of a D. E. student. They attend school in the morning and are off in the afternoon to go to work. To the right, Joe Johnson is pictured working at a local book store.

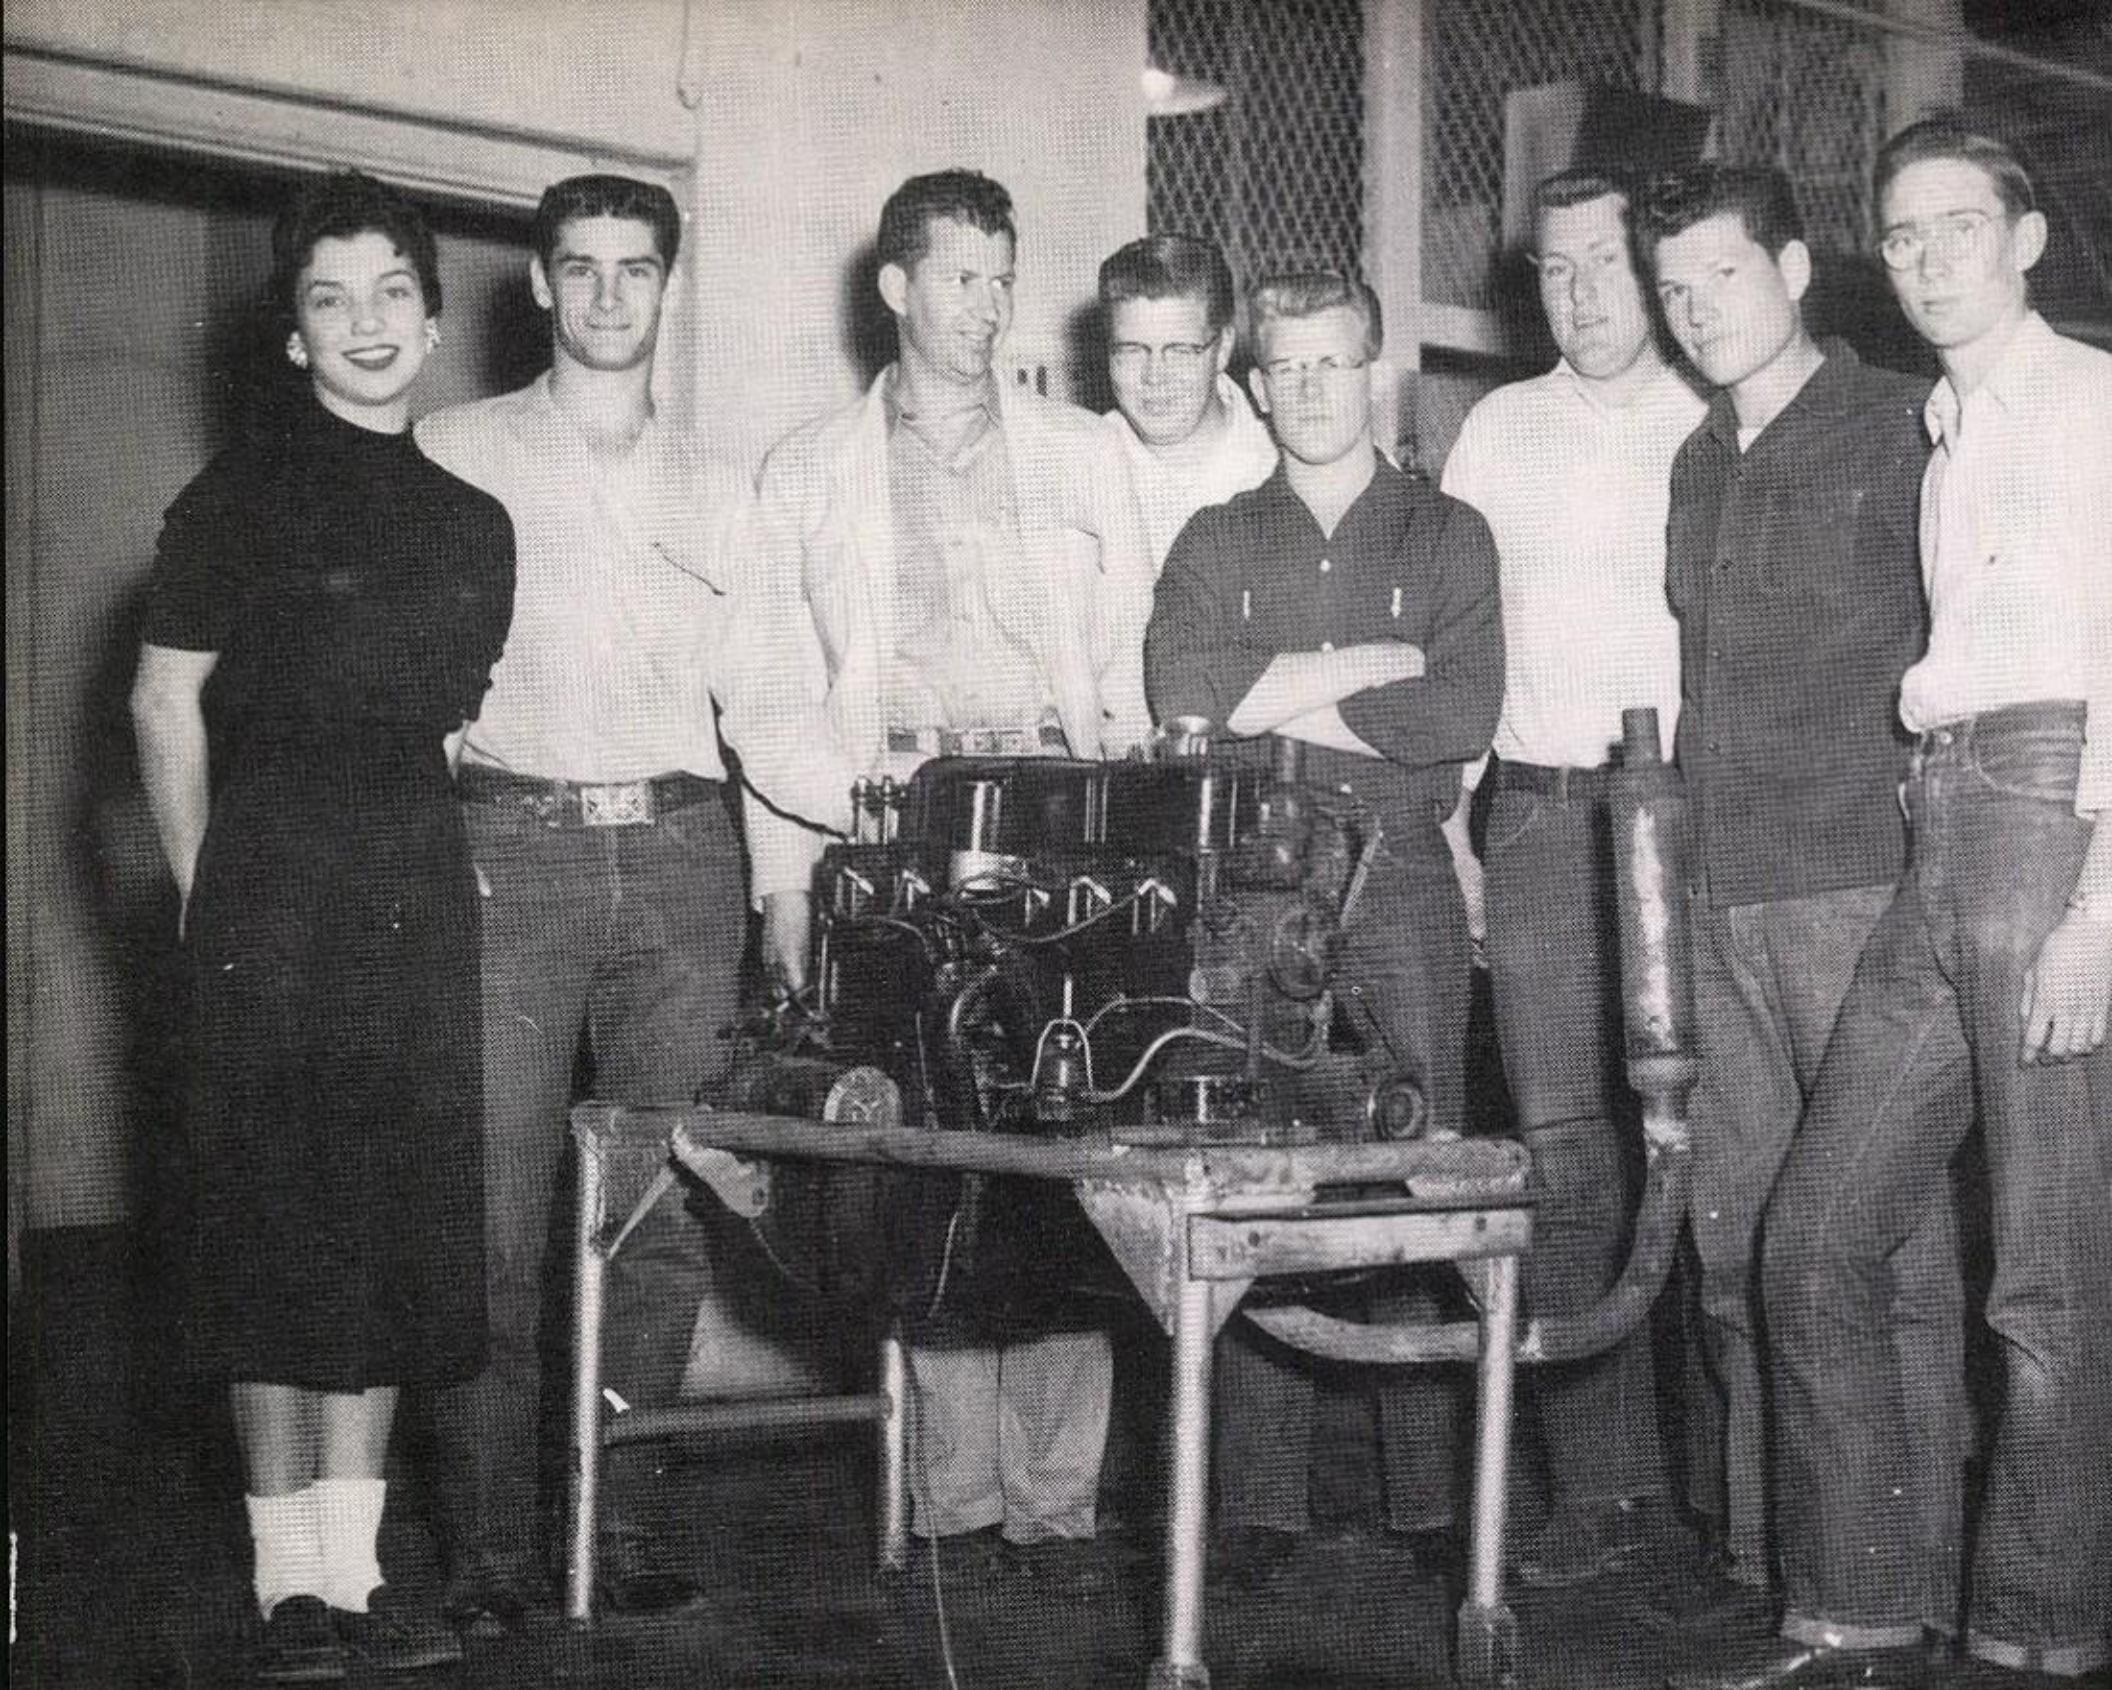

VIC Chapter 109 Studies Metal Trade

VIC Chapter 109 has as its main purpose to teach the boys to work in harmony. In the circle is pictured two officers and one member of the club receiving guidance about welding from their sponsor Mr. James H. Tolson. In the extreme left is the president of the club Larry Templeton, Curtis Rainwater, a member, and Bob Patterson, sergeant at arms. Not pictured are Gene Johnson, vice president and Eddy Nixon, secretary.

Along with studying the metal trade, the club has varied activities and socials. As one of their activities they elected LaRue Mauldin as their club sweetheart. This year, in the spring, the club went to district and state meets. The district meet was held in Lubbock.

Vocational Industrial Club Promotes Auto-Mechanics

Chapter 10 of the Vocational Industrial Clubs is composed of boys studying auto-mechanics at Lubbock High School. In their well-equipped shop, the boys learn the rudiments of a valuable trade under the direction of Mr. E. James Burnett, club sponsor and auto-mechanics instructor.

During the year the group attended a district meet and a state meet in Galveston, where they displayed a project, constructed by the club members.

Various programs, membership and fund drives constitute the main activities of the Lubbock High School chapter of Junior Red Cross. It is an auxiliary to the American Red Cross.

March is Red Cross Month, in which special membership campaigns and fund drives are conducted. This is not the only month that the Red Cross gives volunteer help; they work in time of floods, fires, tornadoes, or any other kind of distress.

Pictured as they plan a program are the officers of the club along with Miss Glenys Honey, sponsor. They are Lois Taylor, vice president; Becky Allen, secretary; Miss Honey; and David Edwards, president.

Wrapping packages to present to an old folks home are Patsy Painter, Miss Honey, Donal Myrick, Don King, Robert Benton, Mickey McDonald, Johnanna Zournas, Jacque Box, and Carol Leaverton.

Musicians' Guild Boasts 121 Members

Organized in 1950 for students interested in music, the Musicians' Guild had a membership of 121 this year. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Everett Carver and Miss Nancy Davis, the club's main purpose is to promote appreciation for music. Programs during the year included outside performers as well as student talent.

The main activity of the club was its annual early-morning initiation held at the first of the school year at Wagoner Park at 6 a.m. Pledges were required to wear their clothes backwards. At right are some of the pledges as they draw their footprints across the tennis court.

District TALA Meet Held At Lubbock High

To learn library materials and procedures and promote interest in good reading are the purposes of the Melvil Dewey Club. Thirty student library assistants met every other Monday with their sponsor, Mrs. R. T. Groves, in the library during the homeroom period.

Activities included decorating the show case for Book Week, attending the district and state Teen-Age Library Association Meetings, and having two parties, one at Christmas and the other one in the spring.

Initiation Highlights SOS Club Activities

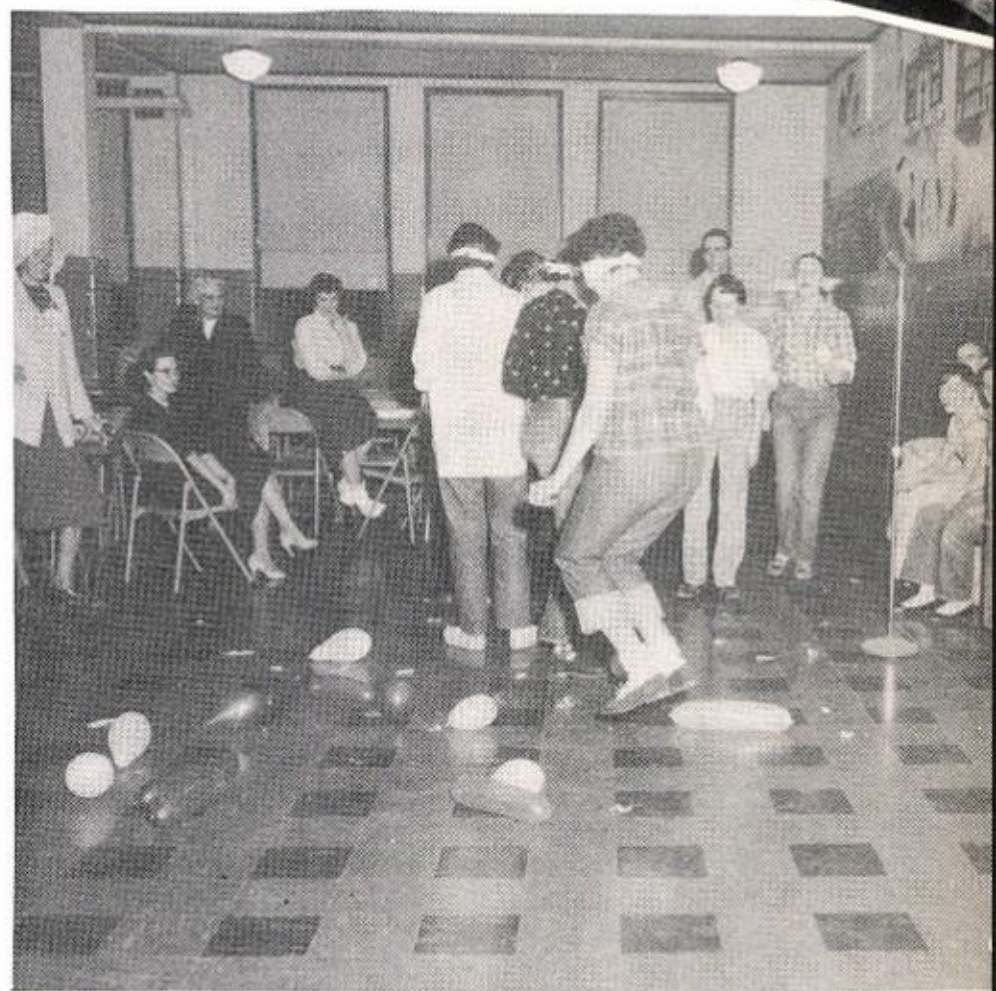

To study art and artists and to engage in art activity is the purpose of the Splash or Splatter Club. SOS, composed of 57 members, meets on TTF Tuesdays.

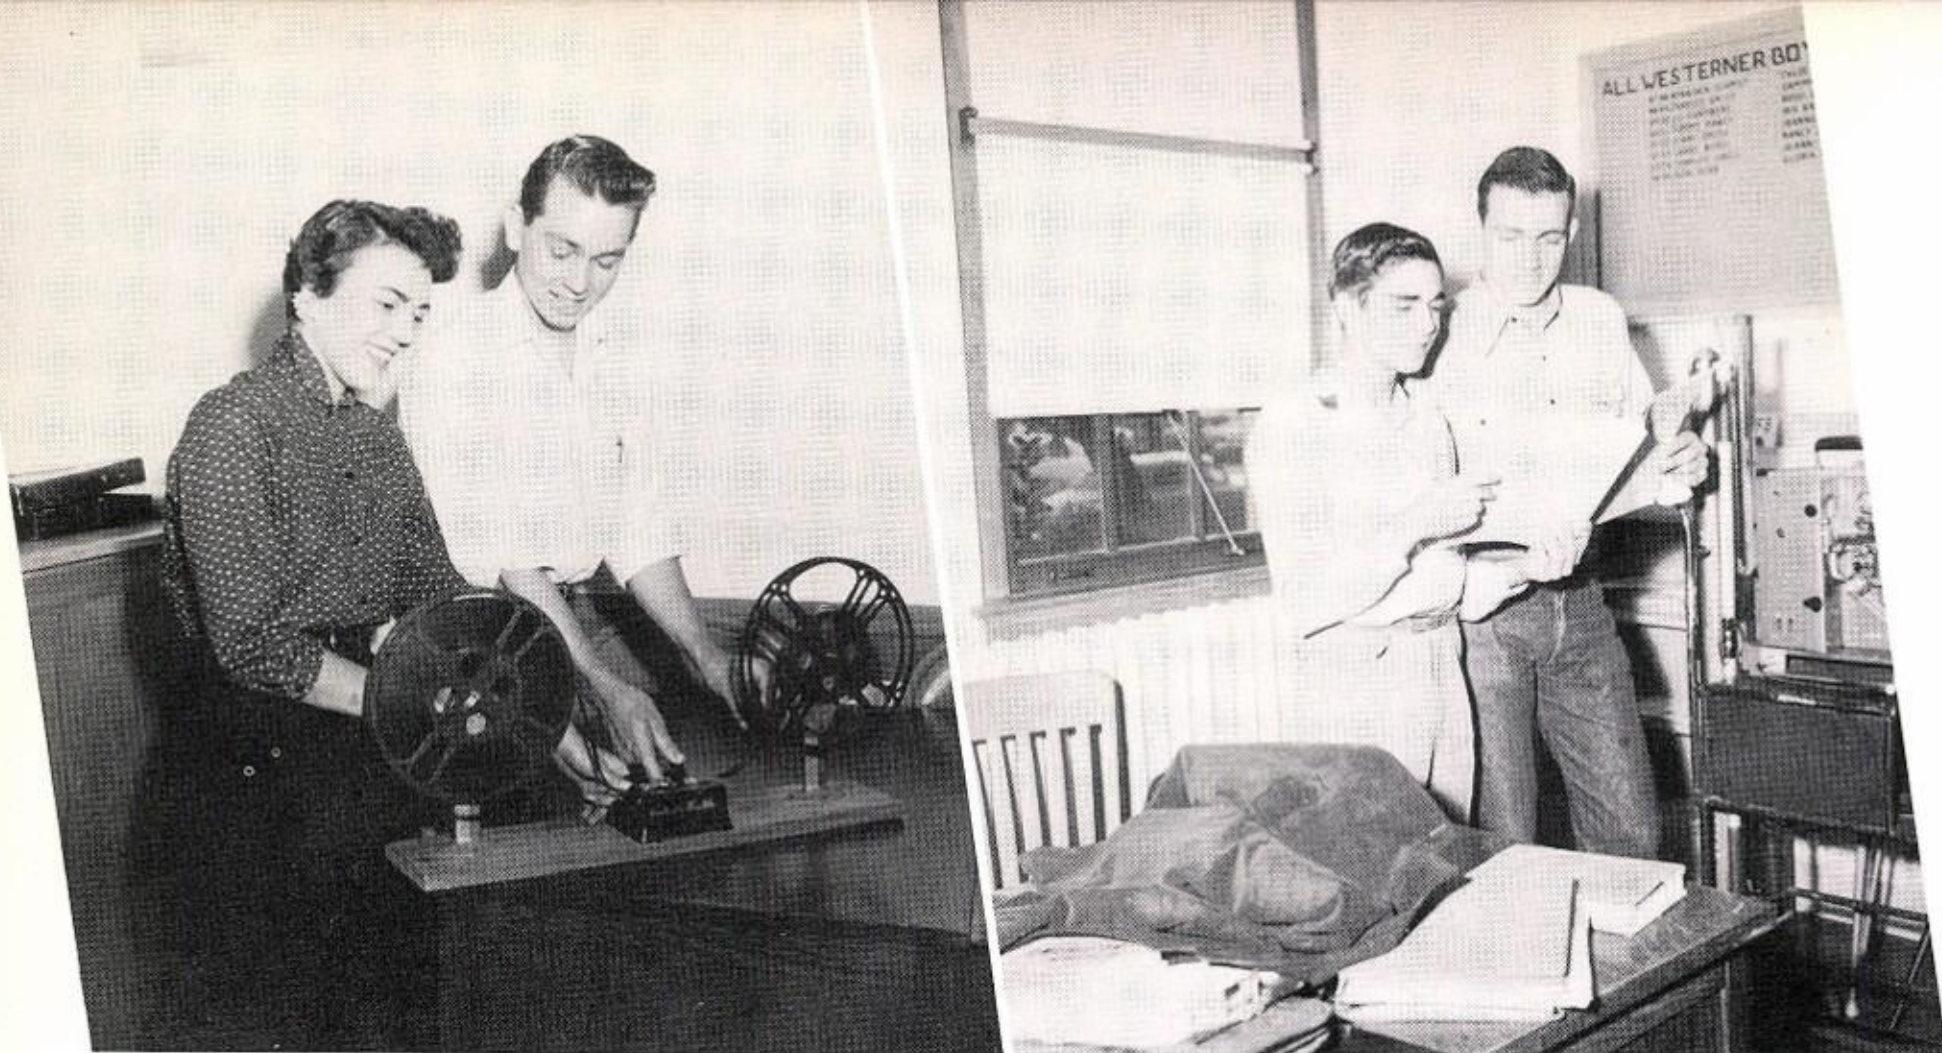

Officers and sponsors are shown as they work on the club scrapbook. They are Bill Cline, president; Eddie Joe Bradford, vice-president and program chairman; C. L. Eudy, secretary-treasurer; Miss George Ann McFarland, and Miss Mary Wilson, sponsors.

Highlighting activities for 1955-56 is the annual initiation, held this year in the cafeteria. Pledges were required to repeat the preamble of the club constitution the week preceding the initiation. Black marks were worked off by stunts. Several pledges are shown performing their stunts. At the party boys dressed as girls and girls, as boys. Modeling the latest women's fashions are George Caruthers, Dayle Hendon, Carl Moore, Weldon Maxey, Bobby Bledsoe, and Johnny Clemmons, as shown in the lower left picture.

During the initiation program, C. L. Eudy presented a humorous radio announcer's skit for the amusement of the pledges. Eddie Joe Bradford and Bill Cline watch. Pledge's imagination was put into the modern art drawings which occupy space on the wall.

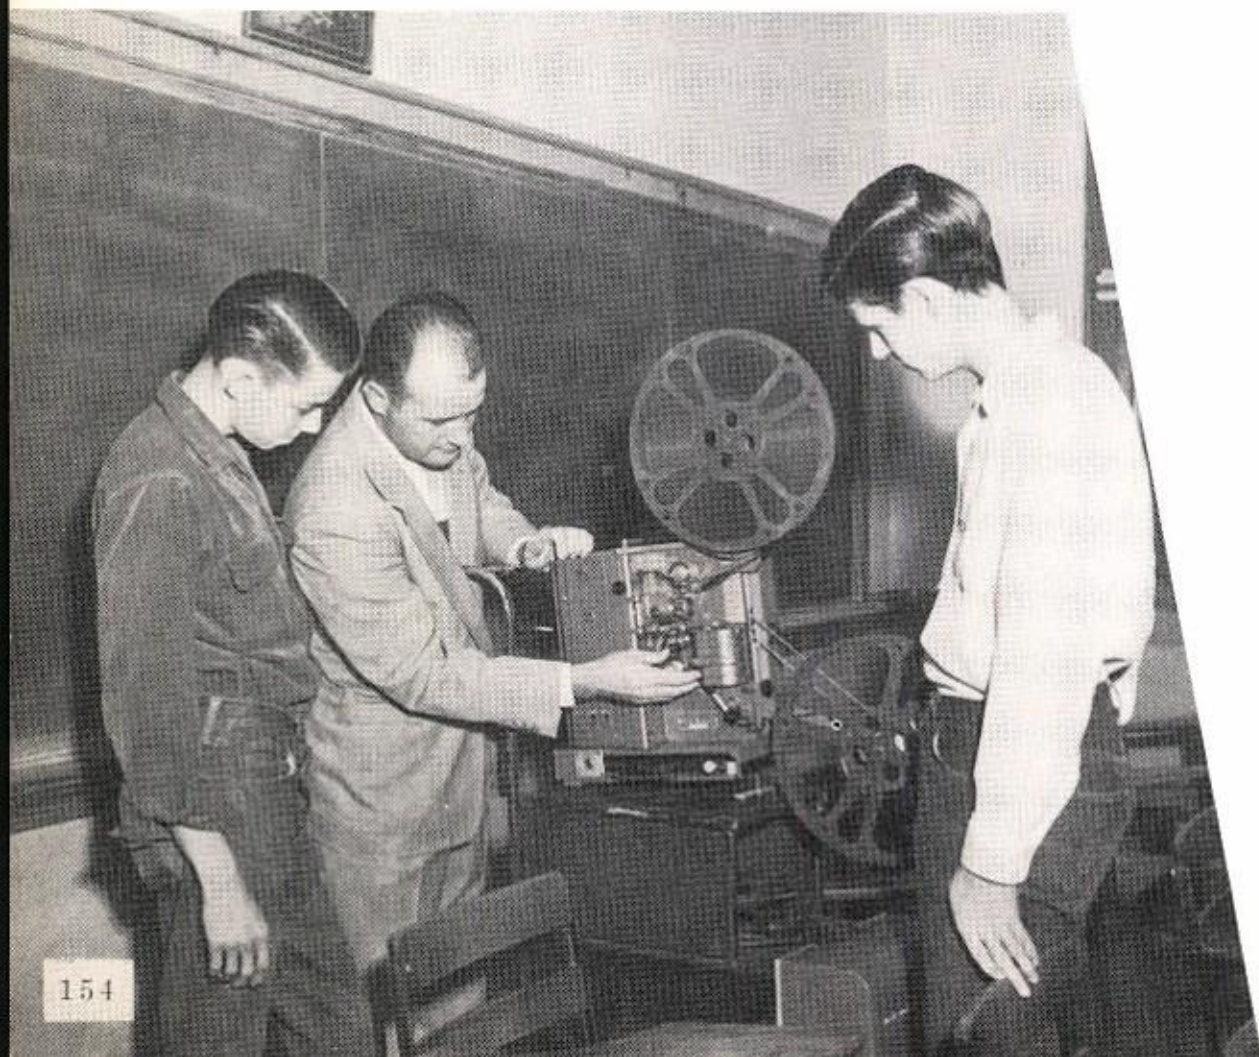

Projectionists Aid Faculty With Audio-Visual Material

Serving the faculty and promoting better use of the audio-visual equipment in Lubbock High are the main purposes of the Projectionists Club. The club, under the direction of Mr. Robert Knight, meets fifth period MWF in room 107.

Fifteen students constitute the club, and any person enrolled in audio-visual classes is eligible for membership. Operating projection machines for various classes is tabbed as the main duty of members. They help teachers to use any equipment which involves audio-visual education.

F.T.A. Holds Initiation

Teaching and educating the future generation is the objective of the Future Teachers of America chapter. The 38 members, sponsored by Mrs. A. F. Rasor and Mrs. B. R. Brunson, try to learn more about the teaching profession.

This year, James Osborne and Peggy Hallahan won the club's speaking contest on "Why I Want to Be A Teacher," and were named Mr. and Miss Future Teacher of the Tom S. Lubbock chapter.

In the above picture are the officers of the Lubbock High F.T.A. Club. These leaders are, standing, Betty Strickland, president; Carol McWilliams, reporter; C. L. Eudy, historian; and Tommy Staples, parliamentarian. Seated are Mrs. A. F. Rasor, sponsor; Dolores Fowler, vice-president; Margaret Kight, secretary; Janice Ayers, song leader; Juanita Adams, treasurer; and Charlene Howard, librarian.

New members were initiated and officers were installed at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church Nov. 9. Below are C. L. Eudy, Sheila Cline, Dolores Fowler, Betty Strickland, Margaret Kight, Eddie Joe Bradford, Peggy Hallahan, Tommy Staples, and Mrs. B. R. Brunson, sponsor.

The program included a vocal solo by Joyce James, and a speech on teaching by Mrs. Martha Hall, assistant dean of women at Texas Tech.

Looking at the photography in last year's annual are Miss Ingram and Mrs. Keeton, sponsors of the Camera Clique Club. They gave their time and support to this club on even-week Tuesdays.

Camera Clique Club Boasts 76 Members

Camera Clique Club activities for the year of 1955-56 consisted of slide shows, print and slide contests, lectures from adult photographers, and movies about photography.

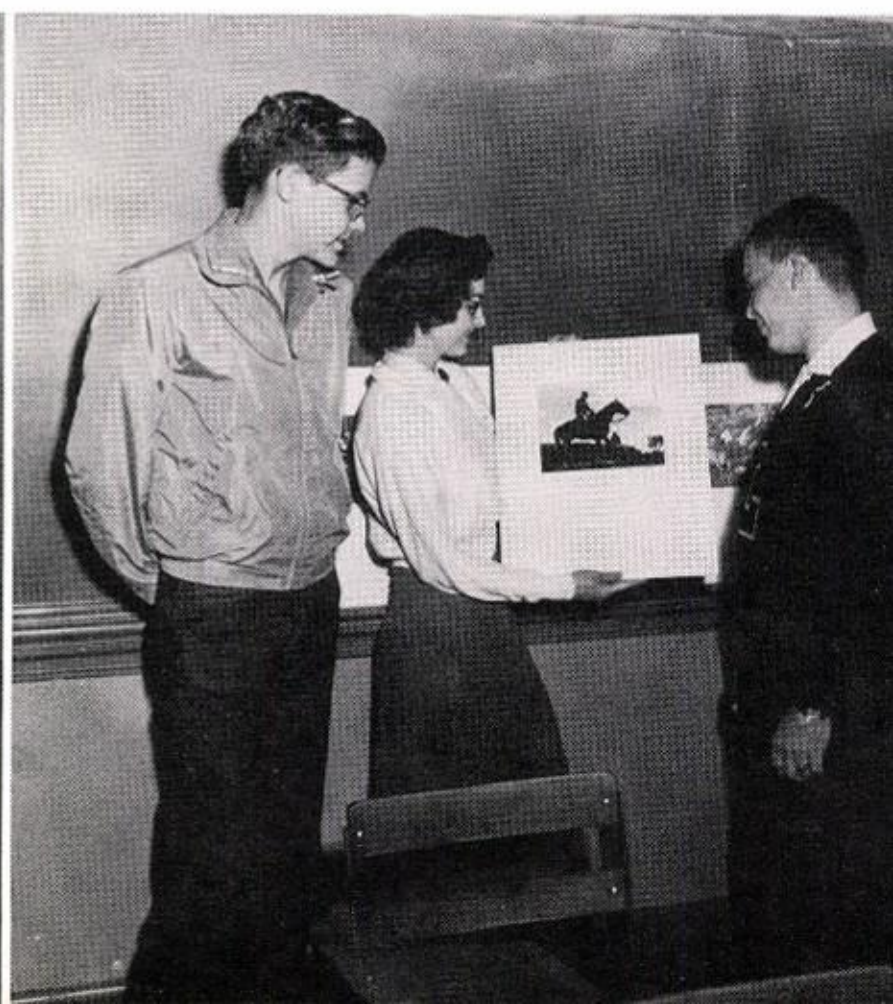

The purposes of this club are to bring together all students interested in photography; to view and enjoy the works of others; to encourage interest and further knowledge in the field of photography.

Anyone with a camera is eligible to membership in the club sponsored by Mrs. Haskell Keeton and Miss Kathleen Ingram.

Now there are 76 participating members in Camera Clique, which was organized in 1950.

Discussing a picture which appeared in a local paper are the officers of the club: Brit Myers, secretary; Don Denton, reporter; David Willeford, vice-president; Wally Jackson, president; and Donald Wiesem, second vice-president.

"Tell Dory Not To Cry" was presented to members of the Thalian Theater, Feb. 21.

Members of the cast were Bayla Skibell, Frances Fredenburg, Bettye Jane Fite, and Lonita Gamblin.

Membership Of Thalian Theater Attends Plays, Listens To Speakers

Thalian Theater, organized in September of 1954, to encourage students to develop dramatic ability boasts a membership of 77.

Any student interested in dramatics can enter this club which meets on odd-week Tuesdays in the auditorium under the sponsorship of Mr. Jack Mears, Jr. Mrs. Bill McGhee is also a sponsor.

The programs for members include plays put on by members of the club and speakers who discuss acting. Social events consist of an initiation and a banquet.

Mrs. Bill McGhee, sponsor of this club, instructs members on the art of acting. Pictured with Mrs. McGhee are Winnie McGraw, James Tabor, and Margaret Tollin.

Biology Club Replenishes Aquarium

The purpose of Biology Club members is to increase their appreciation of natural beauty of their environment and gain a knowledge of the contribution science has made to modern living.

The agenda planned for this group included field trips, a study of tropical fish, and replenishing an aquarium.

The club, formed in 1951, is now under the sponsorship of Mrs. Euna B. Watkins and has 38 members, an increase of 17 over last year.

Inspecting cacti in the terrarium in the upper picture are Biology Club officers. Seated are Ronnie Gore, parliamentarian; Barbara Thompson, reporter. Standing are Tommy Bacon, treasurer; Lawrence Banks, program chairman; Donald Weldon, president; Bill Spain, secretary; and Billy Spitzer, vice president.

Science Club Has Student Projects

To foster activities in the field of science other than those in normal class work is the purpose of the Science Club. The 38 members of the club went on field trips, had student projects, saw films, and heard guest speakers during the year. Anyone in Tom S. Lubbock who was interested in science could join. This year the club met in Mrs. M. F. Landwer's room during the homeroom period on MWF Tuesdays.

Looking at a human skull given to Mrs. Landwer by a student a few years ago are the officers of the Science Club. They are Pat Jordon, program chairman; Mrs. Landwer, sponsor; Joe Pillars, vice-president; Sara Shipley, secretary; Kinky Williams, president; and Martha White, reporter. Not shown is Mrs. T. R. Bailey, sponsor.

Blackford Heads TNT Club

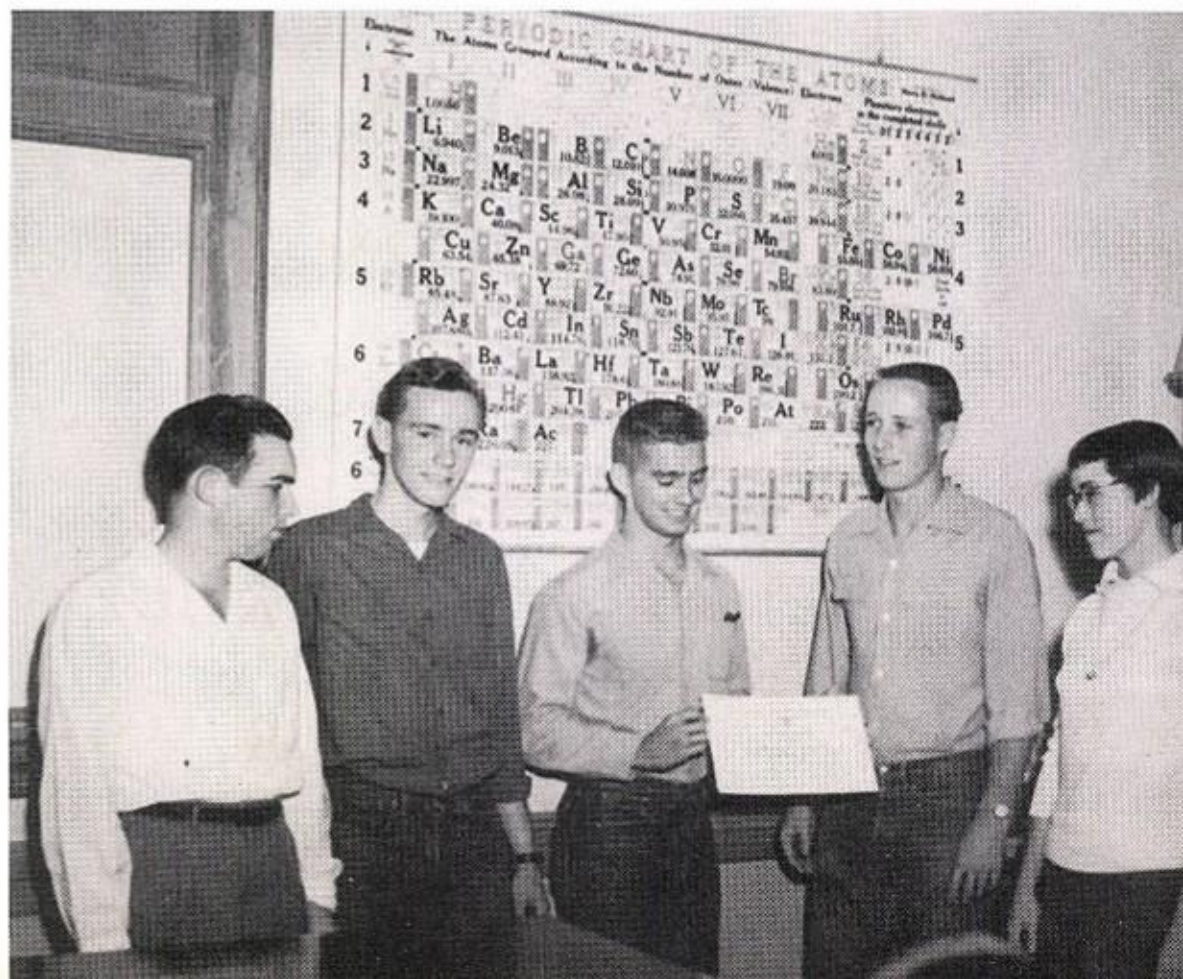

Students taking chemistry who have a grade average of C or above may become members of Telling New Truths Club. They study chemistry to enrich their knowledge in the field.

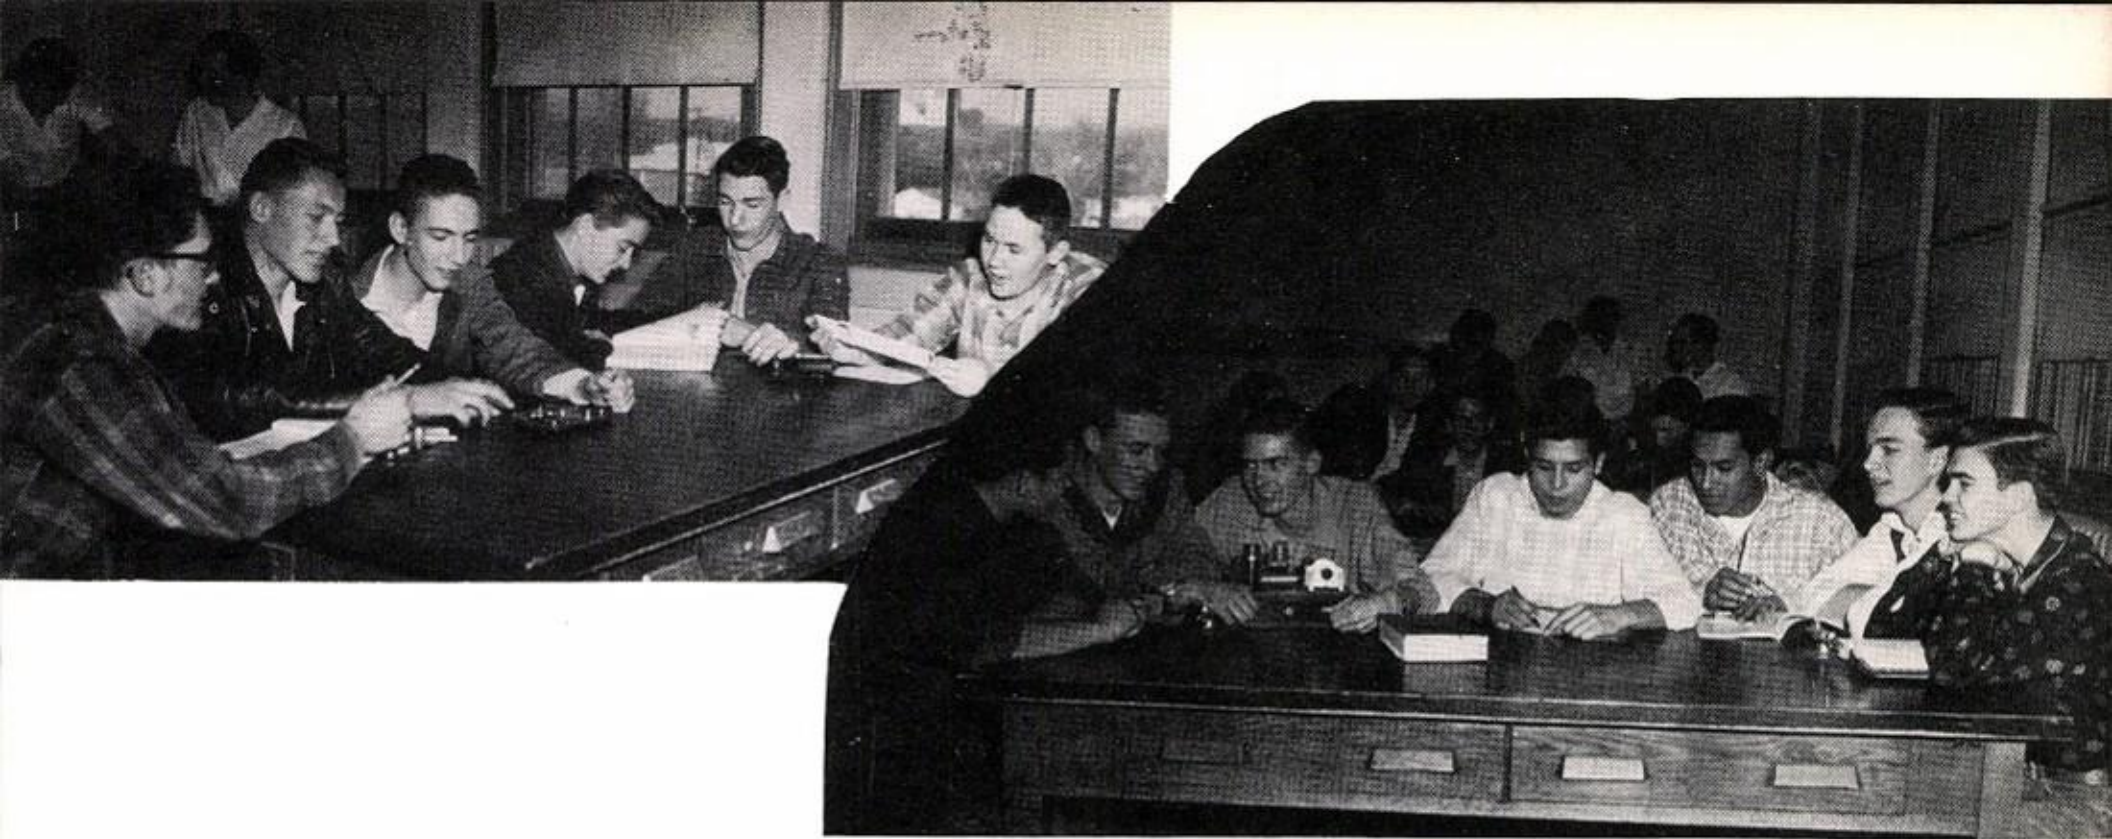

Mrs. Jewell L. Gilliam helps them and sponsors TNT, which has 30 members. It was organized in 1950 and now meets in 309 of even-week Tuesdays.

Watching the experiment of the electrolysis of water above are Lowell Cross, Kenneth Blackford, Allen Jones, Martin Benson, and Donal Myrick. An electric current is passed through water to decompose it into its separate elements in this experiment.

Mrs. Jewell L. Gilliam, above, is the sponsor of Telling New Truths. She offers advice on experiments and helps explain things seen on field trips.

Shown at the right, looking at a certificate that verifies TNT Club as a member of the Science Clubs of America, are the officers. They are Lowell Cross, vice-president; Dick Burr, reporter-treasurer; Kenneth Blackford, president; Scott Mack, parliamentarian; and Anne Williams, secretary.

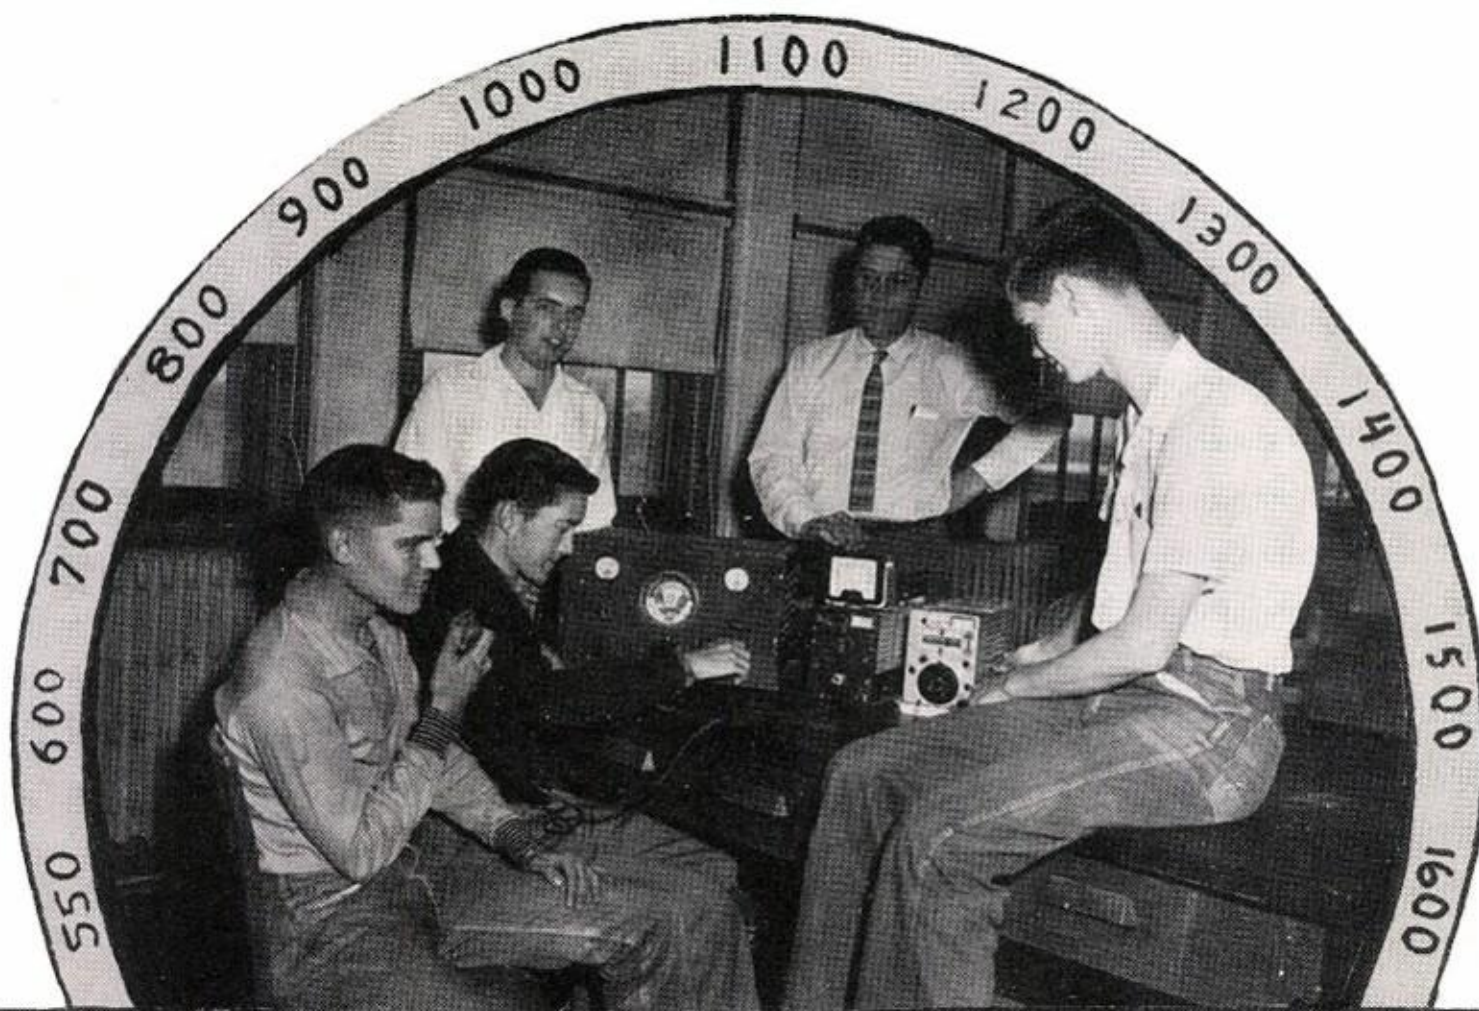

Senior High Amateur Radio Klub Increases Interest In Ham Radios

SHARK, or the Senior High Amateur Radio Klub, was organized last year to increase interest in amateur radios and to learn correct operating procedures in emergency communications. The club this year was made up of 22 boys who were interested in radio and who had their amateur radio licenses.

Sports-Minded Girls Join Westernettes

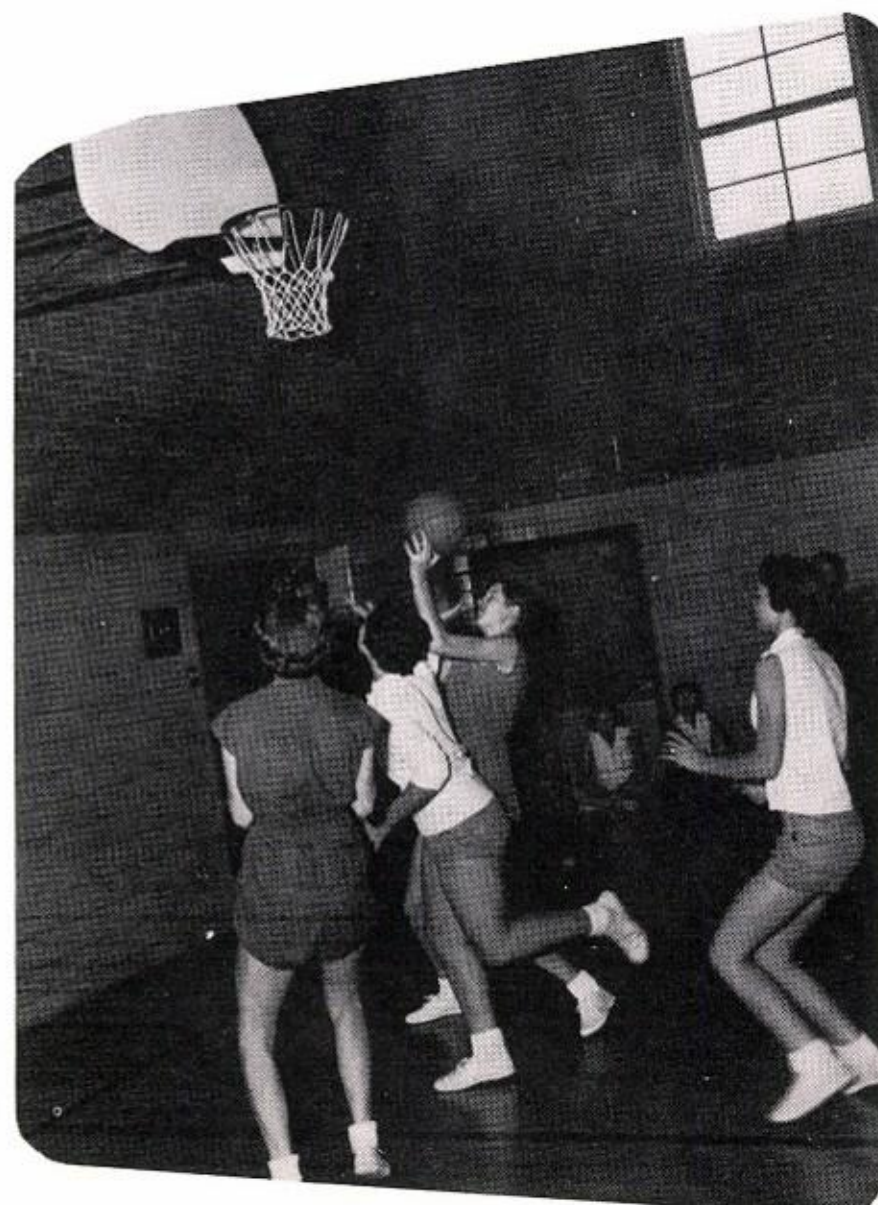

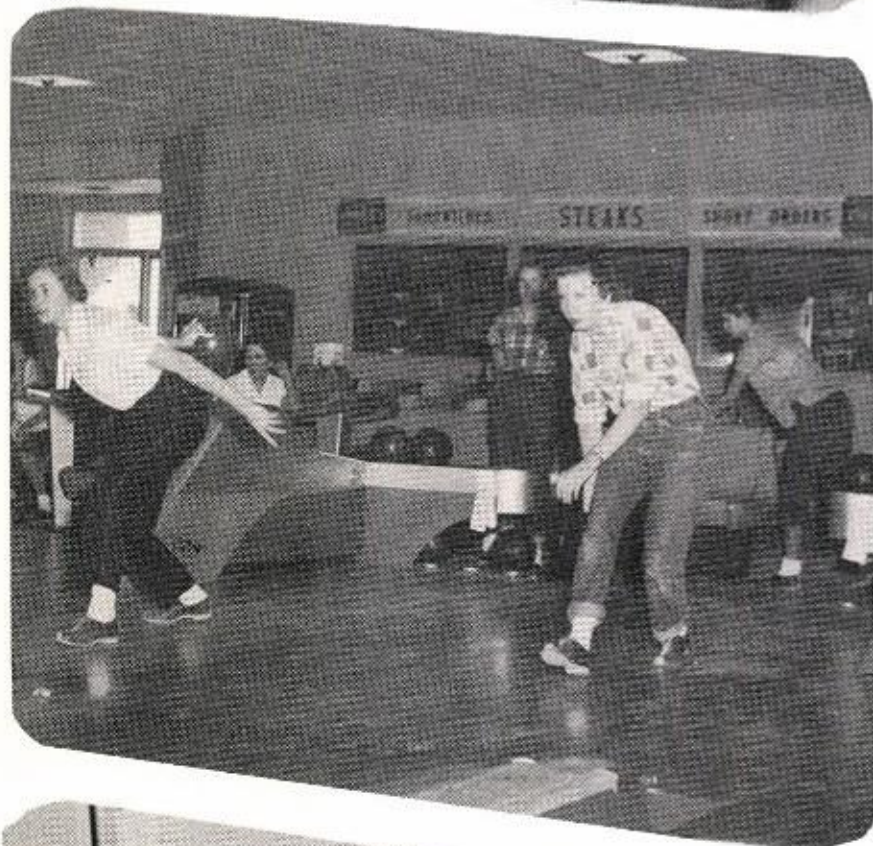

Shown drinking cokes at the informal initiation party in October are the officers of Westernettes. They are Patsy Thompson, reporter; Barbara St. Clair, president; Alice Orr, secretary-treasurer; and Charlene Howard, vice-president.

A typical scene on Saturday mornings was the Westernettes bowling. At left Gwen Wilson and Shannon Golding are taking their turns as Kay Catt, Sue Willis, and Karen Spruiell await theirs. Shannon won the bowling tournament held Nov. 19 and received a small trophy.

Relaxing after a day of teaching are Mrs. John Wilson and Miss Jeanette Hill, girls' physical education teachers and sponsors of Westernettes. They directed the girls in their sports.

Playing a game of basketball after school are Beth Clark, La Verne Hall, Karen Spruiell, and Barbara St. Clair.

Eighty-four sports-minded girls were members of the Westernette Club this year. Meeting every Thursday after school, the members played basketball, volleyball, ping-pong, tennis, badminton, softball or other sports popular at the time. Activities such as bowling, tennis, hiking, and skating were offered on Saturday mornings. Basketball, ping-pong, badminton, bowling, and volleyball tournaments were held during the year.

ALL-DISTRICT PLAYERS

Westerners Win 5, Lose 5 In '55

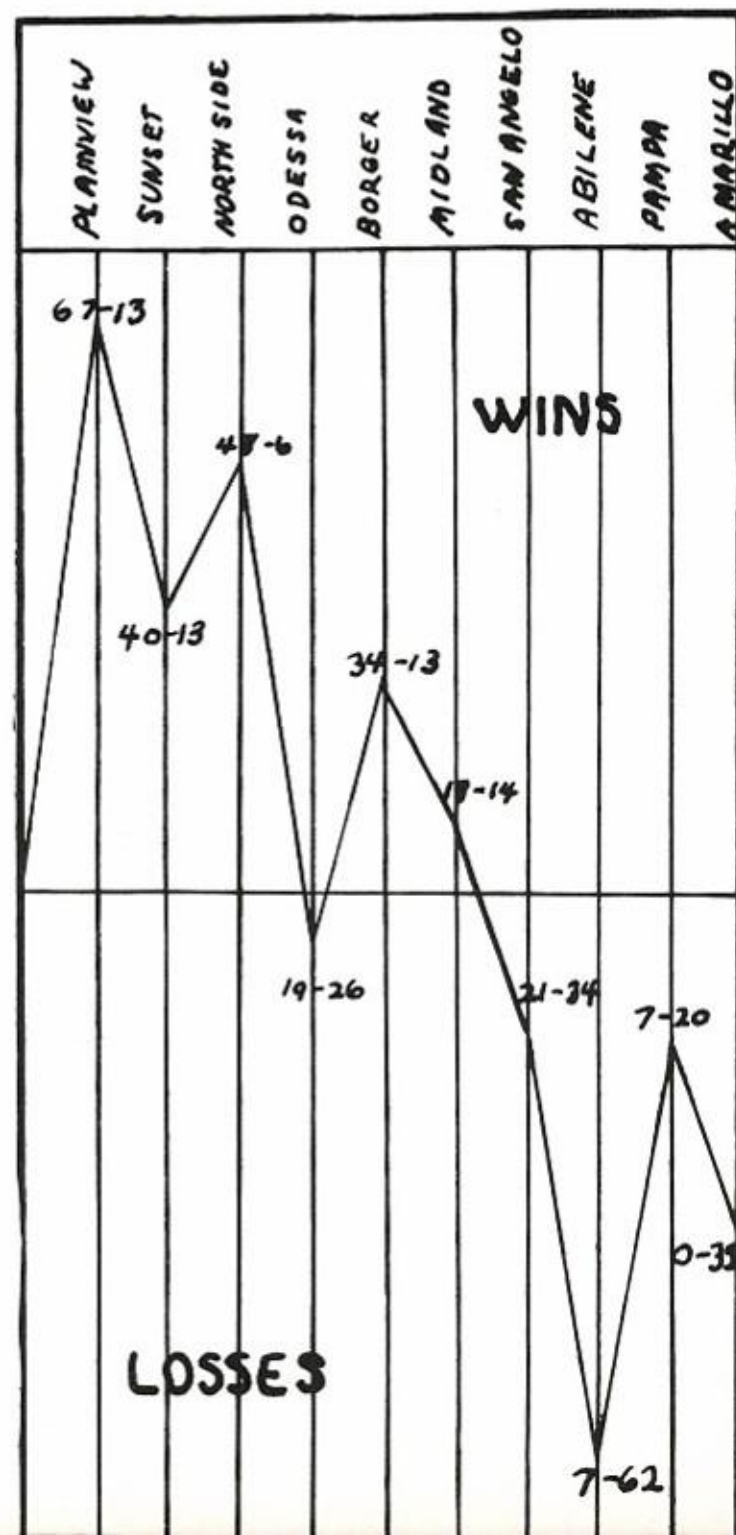

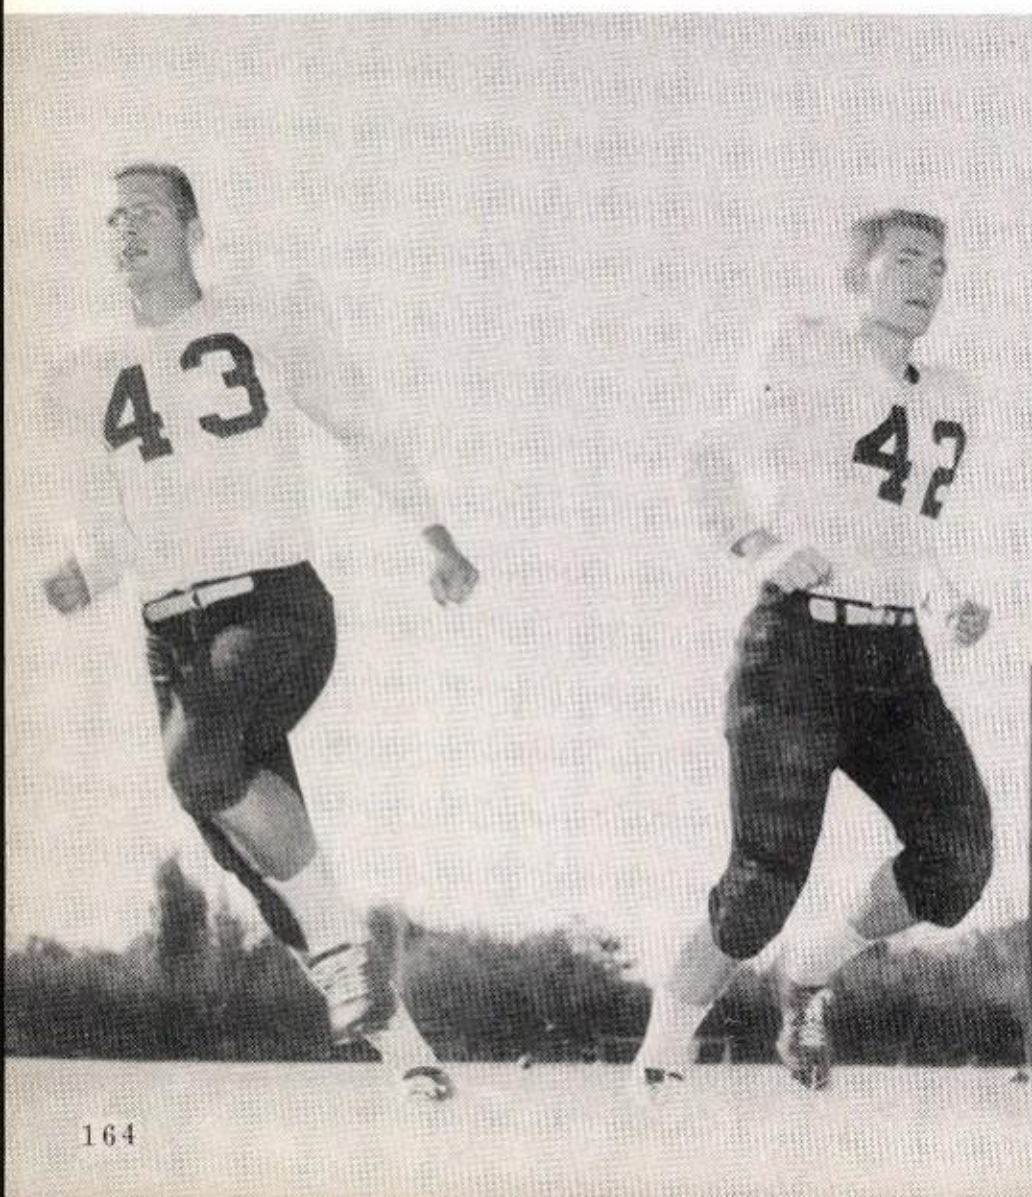

The Tom S. Lubbock High School football team started off the 1955 season with a series of tremendous wins over non-district foes. The season opener, on Sept. 17, saw the Westerners clobber Plainview 67-13 in Jones Stadium. Next on the slate were the state quarter-finalists Sunset Bisons of Dallas, who suffered their only regular season's loss to the Westerners 40 to 13. Then came the Northside Steers of Fort Worth who fell to the Westerners, 40 to 6.

The Westerners opened their district play following the Northside game. The district race proved to be more difficult than non-conference play. In the opening game the Westerners journeyed to Odessa to lose a hard-fought game to the fired-up Bronchos, 26 to 19. The game was high-lighted by an 85-yard kickoff return by Lubbock's Robert Benton. In the next district game the Bulldogs of Borger came to town to face defeat at the hands of the Westerners, 34 to 14. Following Borger, in perhaps the most exciting game in Lubbock High School football history, the Westerners overpowered Midland with a jump pass from Jerry Head to Gary Ketron in the last second of play to win 19 to 14.

Journeying to San Angelo, the Tom S. footballers lost on fumbles to a powerful Bobcat team, 34 to 21. After an open week, the Westerners met the state champion Abilene Eagles. The Eagles handed the Lubbock crew a stunning 62 to 7 defeat. The following week the Pampa Harvesters managed their only district win by beating the Westerners 20 to 7. In the last game of the season against arch-rival Amarillo, the Westerners suffered their first shut-out in two years, 35 to 0.

The 1955 Westerner CO-CAPTAINS were ROBERT BENTON (43) and DAVID WEBB (42) who led the team through the past season.

Tillery, Farris, Oglesby Guide Westerners

CLARENCE TILLERY, backfield coach, is in his first year on the Westerner staff. Formerly he was the baseball coach for LHS.

Head Coach PAT FARRIS also assumes the line coaching duties. Under his guidance the Westerners have regained the spirit of former LHS teams.

BILL OGLESBY directs the Westerner ends and teaches mathematics at LHS. He was also end coach for last year's team.

THE WESTERNER MANAGERS for 1955 are Junior Odie Hood; Senior Don Lowrimore, head manager; and Junior Mike Hendon.

MR. ECK CURTIS, athletic director for the Lubbock schools, directs the athletic programs of the junior highs, high schools, and grade schools.

Cagers Wind Up Season With 16 Wins, 14 Losses

The Tom S. Lubbock High School basketball team started the 1955-56 season without a returning letterman. Under the guidance of Coach Max O'Banion, the team was molded into a powerful unit, noted for their long set shots and fine play around the basket. The first few non-district games were dropped by the Westerners by small three and four point margins. With this added experience the Westerners started a string of seven victories over non-district foes. First to fall was Plainview, followed by Abilene and Odessa. The next week Abilene and Plainview each dropped a second game to O'Banion's cagers. The Westerners won an over-time game against Abernathy and then defeated Snyder.

The Westerners were champions of the Snyder Tournament. In the opener, Tom S. dropped Snyder 62 to 52. In the final game the Lubbock crew stunned Midland 60 to 51. Bobby "Cotton" Sumner and Max Hood were named to the all-tournament team. The Westerners finished third in the Odessa tournament by dropping San Angelo 62 to 60.

The Lubbock High team did not do so well in district play. The Westerners opened to face defeat against Pampa 64 to 72. The Lubbock crew met the powerful Borger Bulldogs, who trimmed them 61 to 82. Amarillo handed Tom S. its third defeat 52 to 62. The Westerners dropped the last three games to Pampa 65 to 70, Borger 65 to 86, and Amarillo 46 to 58. The final season standing was 16 wins and 14 losses. The individual scoring honors went to Don Eddleman with a 12.5 average per game. Eddleman was followed by Max Hood with a 12.2 average.

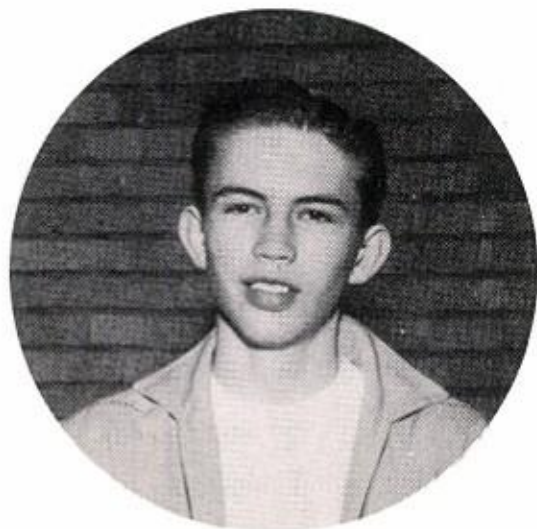

CO-CAPTS. ED WATSON and KENNETH WILLIAMS led the Westerner basketball team through the '55-'56 season. Their spirit and steady play helped the team to a good basketball season.

The famed Westerner spirit is, as usual, present as evidenced in this picture of the crowd during a crucial tilt. The never-failing energy of the cheerleaders and the roaring response of the crowd urged the Westerners on to victory. Lubbock High School is widely acclaimed for its great school spirit.

The rebounding power of the Tom S. Lubbock Westerners is demonstrated here by Don Eddleman and Jerry Cowan. Though often forced to play against taller opponents, the Lubbock crew never yielded the backboards to their foes. Along with Eddleman and Cowan, Bobby Sumner and Phil Folsom aided the Lubbock attack.

Co-Capt. Ed Watson drives in for a lay-up shot in the Tom S. Lubbock-Amarillo basketball game. Center Don Eddleman and forward E. J. Holub also aid the Lubbock attack. The Sandies dropped the Westerners in the final game of the season, 46 to 58.

In Mr. James Cobb's first year as coach, the Cowhands sported a season of 9 wins and 16 losses in 1956. Many of these games were lost by one and two point margins. The Cowhands, although shy of experience, never lost hope and racked up 1,221 points as compared to 1,225 for their opponents. The experience gained this year will be a great aid to next year's Westerners. The Hands opened the season with wins over Levelland and Big Spring, then lost six straight games.

After beating Levelland again, the Cowhands suffered five more losses before breaking into the win column by stomping Littlefield. Then the Lubbock boys lost to Plainview. In the next two games, the Hands easily took care of Snyder and Littlefield, but Pampa proved their downfall. After beating Post, they traded games with Amarillo, beat Levelland, and suffered defeat at the hands of Pampa and Brownfield to close out the season.

The members of the 1955-56 Pioneer Basketball Team are front row, Merlin Garrett, Charles Moore, Lewis Rix, Guinn Sanders, and Don Ewing; second row, James Carmen, Bill Robison, J. M. Hill,

Pioneers Boast Successful Season

The Tom S. Lubbock High Pioneers had a successful season, posing a 12-won and 2-lost record. This is the best record any Pioneer team has had in several years. Coach Jerry Crawford directed the Pioneers through the 1955-56 season. This was Coach Crawford's first year with the Pioneers. They lost only to Matthews Junior High School, in the first game of the season, and to Plainview's "B" team by one point midway in the season. Later in the season these losses were avenged by downing Matthews Junior High School 37 to 34 and Plainview 48 to 27. The Pioneers dropped Brownfield "B" team three times; the Littlefield "B" team twice; and the Post "B" team once. The Pioneers also dropped Hutchinson Junior High once; Thompson Junior High once; and Monterey "C" team once. Don Ewing headed the Pioneers with 102 points followed by Merlin Garrett with 99 points.

Westerner Baseball Team Shows Winning Form, Spirit

Shown on field at the left is the 1956 starting Westerner baseball line-up. These boys led the team through a successful season. The team is led by Co-capt. Bill Dean and Robert Benton. Both boys are returning lettermen from last year's team. The only other returning letterman is catcher "Busher" Smith. The team became a well-rounded unit after the first part of the season was finished. The inexperienced players gained needed confidence, and the starting line-up began to work as a team. The Westerners had plenty of reserve strength during the season. Besides aiding the team when they were called upon to play, the reserves kept the team spirit on a high level.

Mr. E. C. Leslie took over duties as head baseball coach when Mr. Joe King resigned in March. Coach Leslie, pictured top right, assumed duties one week before the season opened and directed the Westerner team the rest of the season.

The Westerner baseball managers are Bobby Glazner and Gifford Moore. These boys are serving in their first year as managers. Bobby and Gifford take care of equipment, handle uniforms, and add to the morale support of the team.

Westerner Reserves Aid Team Spirit

At the left are the reserves of the Westerner baseball team. While these boys do not play in every game, they are called in many instances. Their hard play and determination have turned the tide of several games in favor of the Westerners. Their team spirit keeps Westerner morale high. The boys are, front row, Ewell Copelin, Phil Folsom, Berl Light, and Walter Taylor. Top row, Billy Don Miller, Teddy Pope, Mickey Wilson, and Ed Watson. Folsom, Wilson, and Watson, all seniors, are playing their last year for the Westerners. Miller and Copelin are juniors and Pope, Taylor, and Light are sophomores.

In the picture below, Mike Lundy, junior returning letterman, prepares to lay down a bunt. Kenneth Smith, also a junior and returning letterman, prepares to make the put-out in case Lundy misses the ball.

A "pepper game" is common warm-up practice for the Westerner baseball players. Co-captain Bill Dean leads this game, hitting the ball to Robert Benton, co-captain, Mickey Wilson, and Joel Austin.

In an intra-squad game, David Webb, Westerner first baseman, slides into home plate after a sacrifice bunt. Catcher "Busher" Smith waits for the ball to be relayed to him so he can put the tag on Webb. Dewey Bryant, acting as umpire, prepares to make the call.

Dewey Bryant, Westerner outfielder, is shown as he slides into second, under the tag, after attempting a steal. Mike Lundy, second baseman, waits to make the put-out. Other Westerners can be seen in the background as they practice for an upcoming game.

Ex-coach Joe King congratulates new Baseball Mentor E. C. Leslie on his appointment. Coach King, who guided the Westerner baseballers last year and the first part of the season, resigned in March. Mr. Leslie, former Lubbock Hubber baseball player, was named as his successor.

Trackmen Meet T

The 1956 Westerner track team started off the season with a dual meet with Monterey High School of Lubbock. The Westerners won this meet with a fine showing in all the events. The LHS team placed first in virtually every event. March 10 at the Graham Invitational meet, the Westerners placed in the shot put, broad jump, 880-yard run, and relay. In addition they went to the finals in the 100, 220, and 440-yard runs. Later in the season, the Westerners journeyed to Snyder to participate in the Canyon Relay Relays. With several hundred athletes opposing them, the Westerners did not fare too well, placing only in the broad jump and shot put. As the season wore on, the Westerners were moulded into a fine unit, making a good showing in every meet in which they participated.

Don Eddleman, Westerner high-jump specialist, is shown going over a jump. Eddleman showed great improvement as the season continued. In addition to being on the track team, Eddleman played Westerner Basketball.

E. J. Holub, the big shot put artist for LHS, is shown as he heaves the heavy ball. Holub placed in this event in virtually every meet. E. J. was recognized as one of the best shot put contenders in his district.

Sophomore, Jerry Thrower, clears a vault during practice at Chapman Field. Don Eddleman, senior, also pole vaults for the Westerner track team. Between Jerry and Don, the track team was a strong contender in the pole vault this year.

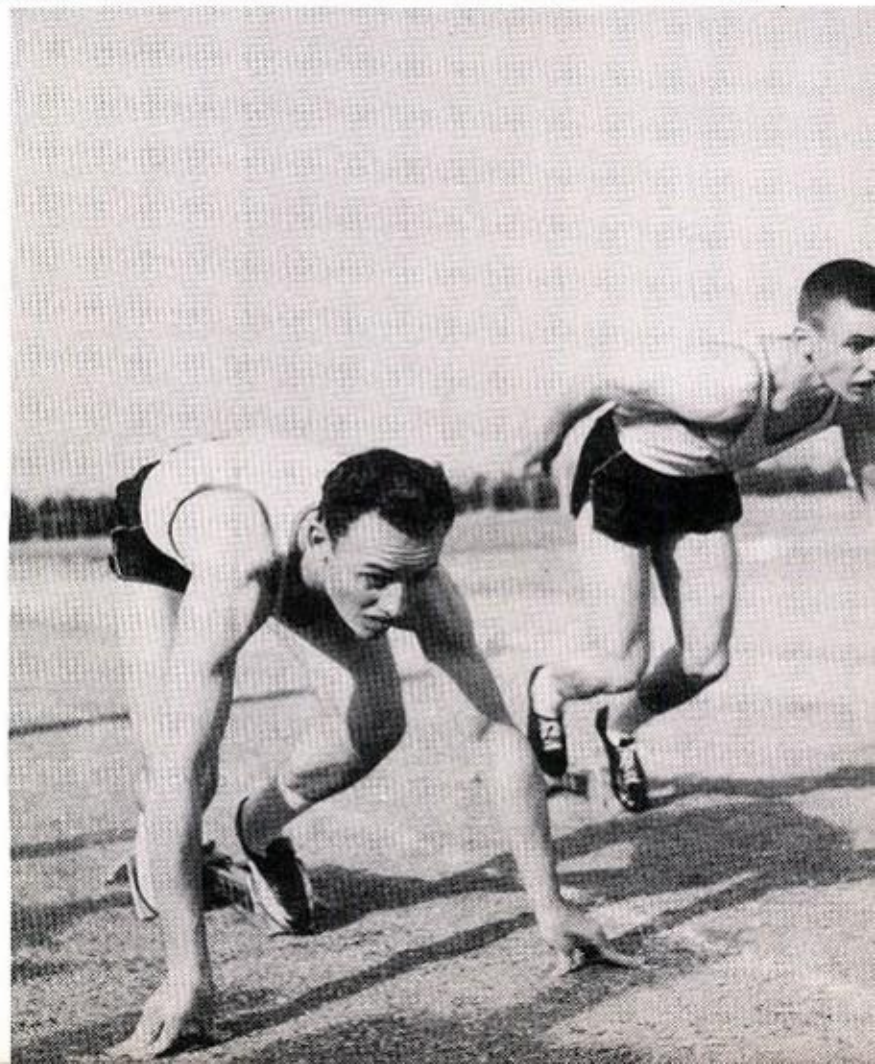

The 880-yard relay team is composed of Don Wells, Joe Cox, J. M. Hill, and Zack Tannery. J. M. and Zack ran on last year's relay team, while Joe and Don are running on the relay team for the first time this year.

Bobby Polk, senior, is shown here making a broad jump. The broad jump has been Bobby's specialty for the past two years. In last year's district meet, he won the broad jump with a leap of 21 feet, 4 inches. Bobby was a consistent point winner for the track team this year.

Doyle Ewing, senior, and Pat McDonald, sophomore, held down the sprint chores for the Westerner track team this year. Both Doyle and Pat run the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash. Pat also runs the 440-yard dash. These boys also run on the sprint relay team.

Members of the 1955-56 Westerner golf team are, on the ball, left to right, Jerry Mahoney, DeWitt Weaver, Co-Capt. Butch Mitchell, Co-Capt. Robert Rodgers, Rodney Hill, and Buddy Mayfield. This year, activities and matches for the golf team have been limited because of the division into two high schools. The golf team was not fully organized until mid-term. After mid-term the boys participated in a tournament at the Fat Stock Show in Ft. Worth and in the district meet in Odessa. Aside from these two meets, the team entered several relays and tournament matches this year.

Golf Team Starts District Play In Spring

The Co-Captains of the Lubbock High School golf team are Gene Mitchell and Robert Rodgers. Both of these boys are seniors and two year lettermen. The captains are shown here approaching their drives during a practice round at the Lubbock Country Club.

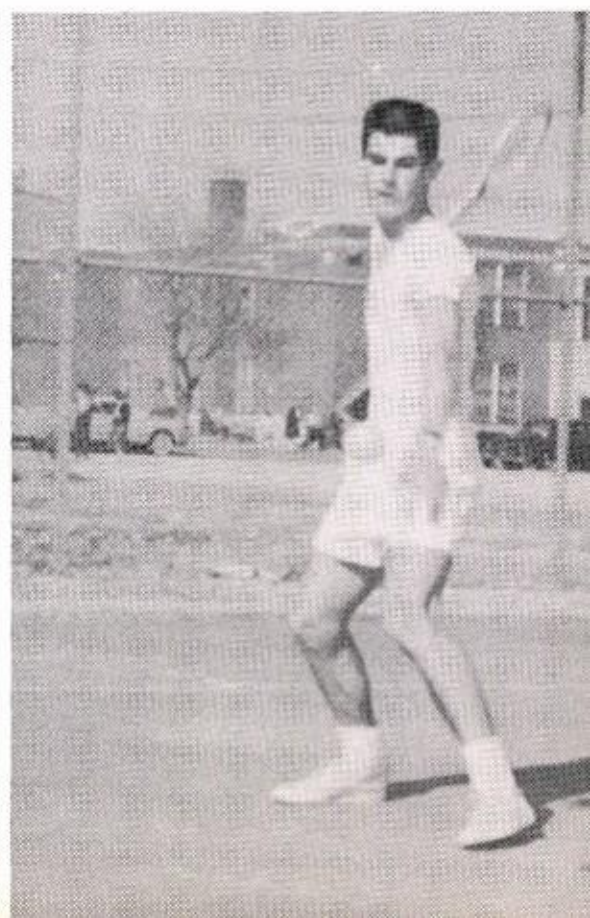

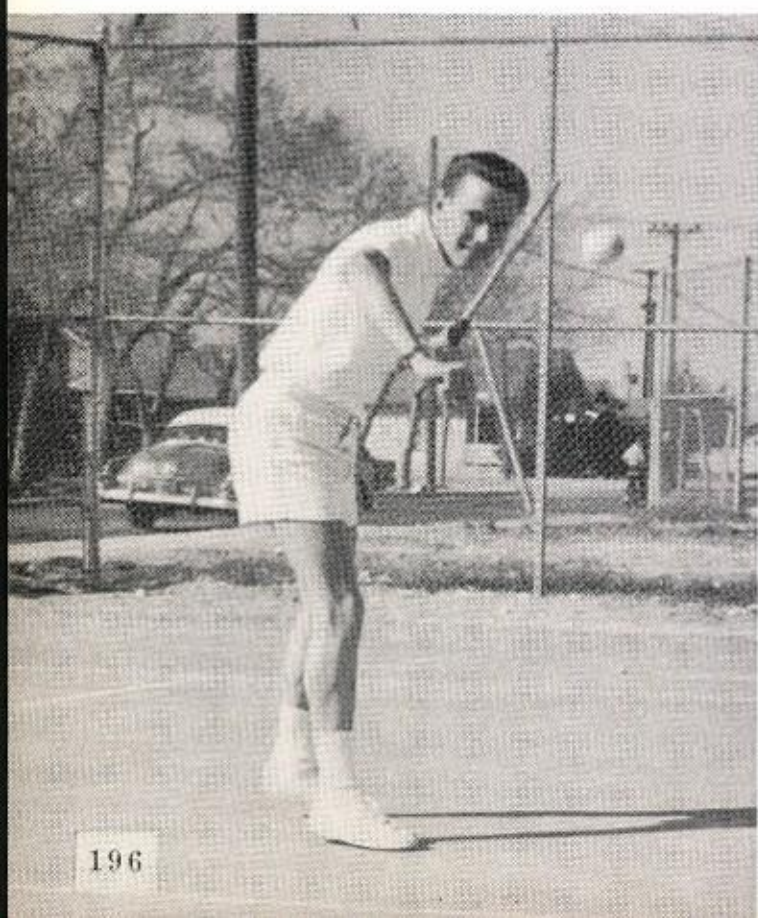

The Tom S. Lubbock High School tennis team has combined with Monterey High School during practice sessions this year. The team was split with the division into two high schools leaving LHS three members. Both schools practice at Monterey courts under the guidance of Tom S. Coach James Burgess. The two teams competed in several tournaments together this year. In the district meet, however, both teams played as separate units.

while Mary Jane Cashion, only returning player, and Milton McKee practice their forehand shots.

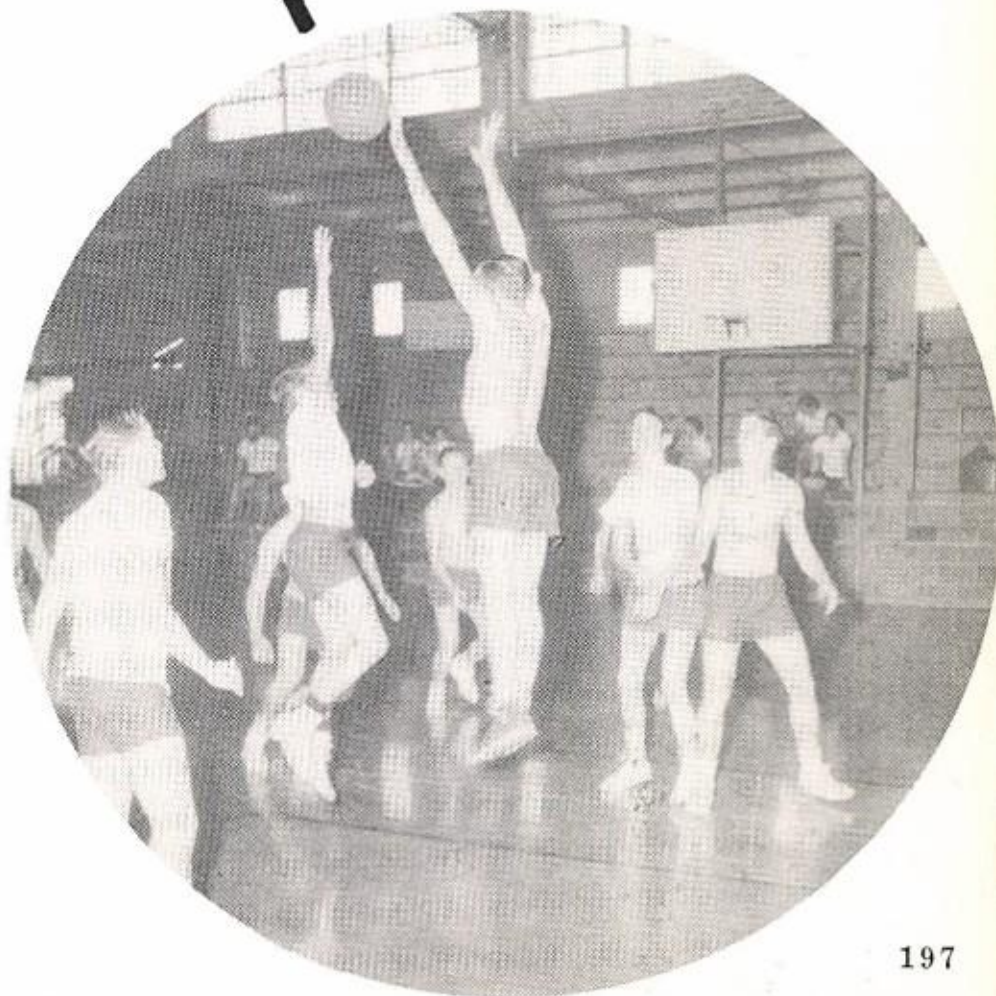

VOLLEY BALL is a fast-moving sport offered by the LHS physical education department. For the first few weeks, the fundamentals, teaching team work and co-ordination are stressed.

Members of the fourth period boys' P.E. classes take their daily calisthenics before entering other activities offered by the physical education department. Calisthenics are used as a means of teaching co-ordination.

Boys' Physical Education

The boys below are participating in P.E. softball. This is the major sport during the early fall and spring. This game gives the boys a chance to play several different positions.

Basketball is one of the favorite sports offered by the Lubbock High School physical education department. Shown below is a group participating in a boys' P.E. intra-class tournament.

FIRST AID, taken during the second semester, is designed to teach the fundamentals of emergency first-aid and care for the injured. If the course is successfully completed, cards are issued signifying satisfactory completion of the junior first aid course.

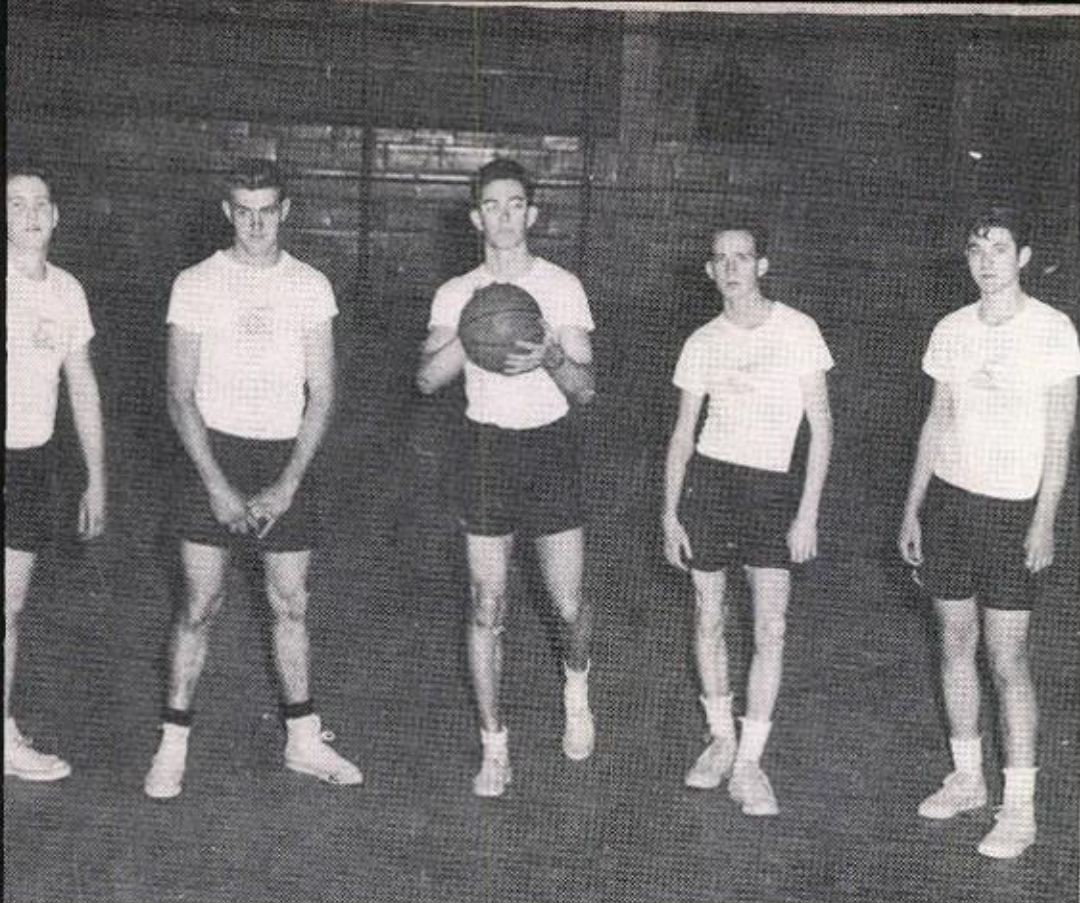

BASKETBALL, which is played during the winter months of school, is one of the best-liked sports offered. Teams are chosen in the different classes and a tournament is held with the class winners playing until a school champion is selected.

VOLLEYBALL is played during the early spring. For several weeks, no permanent organization is made. The girls learn the basic fundamentals of the game during this time. Later, teams are chosen in each of the different classes. These teams play until a winner is chosen from each class. Then, as in basketball, an elimination is held to get a school champion.

Girls' Physical Education

SOFTBALL is one of the featured sports played in the girls' physical education classes at Tom S. Lubbock Senior High School. Softball, started in the spring, is played until the end of school. It is one of the better-liked sports offered by the department, because it allows the girls to play all positions and to learn to appreciate the game.

Classes Hold Basketball Contests; Table Games Played In Individual P. E.

Individual physical education is a feature offered in LHS for students who, for various reasons have been advised by their physician not to participate in regular physical education classes. These students play ping-pong, checkers, chess, and engage in other non-strenuous activities. Pictured below are Don Denton, Billy Williams, Coach Jerry Crawford, Dickie Dietz, and Myrna Carter.

Harry Van Horn, Charlene Howard Named Outstanding in P. E.

Harry Van Horn was named the outstanding boy in physical education this year. He received this award for his leadership and athletic ability. Harry is an outstanding swimmer and also does well in basketball, football, and volleyball. Harry was chosen by the P.E. teachers from the first period T.T.F. class.

Charlene Howard, outstanding girl taking physical education in 1955-56, was chosen because of her excellent athletic abilities and leadership qualities. For three years, Charlene has been one of the key players in the girls intramural tournament. Charlene was also chosen outstanding girl in her junior year.

AUTOGRAPHS

Dear Anita -
 Our high school years are over and
 I know they have meant as much to you as they have to me. I have certainly enjoyed knowing
 you. Stay as sweet as you are. Don't ever change.
 Best of luck,
 Martha Milburn

Anita:

It has really been fun in art class this year with your pigpen and my jail house.
 Lots of luck
 Dale

Dear Anita
 It has been wonderful knowing you this past year.
 May you have all the luck and happiness a girl can have.

Love ya!
 Doris Earp
 "56"

Dear Anita:

It has really
 been fun being in school with
 you. Lot of Luck
 Melvin Ferral

Dear Anita,

I have enjoyed being in class with
 you. Good luck
 always and may God always grant
 your every desire.
 Louisa

Anita,
You are certainly a challenge to everyone you meet. You have been so sweet and a friend
this last year of high school.
Best wishes always to a nice kid.
Barbara Young '56

Anita,
you are the sweetest person I know. I love you for taking all of gripes + troubles with a smile.
I think every one should have a friend like you. I want to wish you all the happiness in the world.

God be with you and keep you close

Love always
Melva

Anita,
I have enjoyed being in D.C. with you this year. May you always succeed in everything you do.
Love always
Kela

Anita
I have really enjoyed knowing you and shall never forget all the swell times we have had together. Always keep that smile and you will have the best. You!
May God bless
Lillian Gogan

~~Anita~~ Dear Anita,
We missed you
on the basketball team.
Best of luck always.
